REVISION.

The General Assembly Takes Up the Subject.

FORMS OF PROCEDURE CONSIDERED.

The First Sale of California Fruit at Chicago—Conc rning Census Enumerators.

SARATOGA, May 22.—At this morning's meeting of the Presbyterian General Assembly the committee on the amendment of the Confession of Faith reported, recommending that overtures be made to the Presbyteries for the insertion of a new chapter in the form of government to the effect that such amendments or alterations of the form of government, the book of discipline and the directory for worship as may be proposed by the General Assembly to the Presbyteries, shall not be obligatory on the church unless the majority of all the Presbyteries approve thereof in writing; that amendments or alterations of the Confession of Faith and the larger and shorter catechisms may be proposed to the Presbyteries by the General Assembly, but shall not be obligatory on the church unless approved in writing by two-thirds of all the presbyteries and agreed to and enacted by the next ensuing General Assembly; that amendments or alterations of the Confession of Faith or larger and shorter catechisms proposed by the General Assembly shall be transmitted to the Presbyteries, and the General Assembly shall appoint to consider the subject a committee of ministers and ruling elders in number not less than fifteen, of whom not more than two shall be from any one synod, and the committee shall report its commendations to the General Assembly next ensuing for action; that no change in this proposed new chapter shall be made, except upon a vote of two-thirds of the presbyteries, that upon overtures from one-third of the Presbyteries, it shall be obligatory upon the General Assembly to transmit to all the Presbyteries any overtures for amendments under this new chapter, and if the majority of all the Presbyteries vote for such alteration, it shall be made.

Second—Shall section 6, chapter 12, be stricken out? The members of the committee were unanimous in reporting in favor of having concessions made on both sides. In answer to a question, Dr. Roberts of the committee said they would not set aside the Westminster edict by a two-thirds vote. The report was then passed, with but one dissenting vote.

Dr. Patton, of Princeton, chairman of the committee for canvassing the answers of the presbyteries on revision, read the report. There were 134 that desired revision and 68 that did not. The others declined to answer. Many desired it, but stipulated that the Calvinistic character of the standards should not be altered. Considerable discussion arose as to the classification of Presbyteries. Albany refused to answer as to revision, but desired a new creed to be used, side by side with the old.

Dr. McCracken made the affirmative 135 and 67 negatives, including Albany and Sacramento in the affirmative, instead of the negative. The very important point as to the classification of the e two decides whether two-thirds have or have not desired revision.

Judge Thornton of San Francisco, of the Canvassing Committee defended its report.

Elder Day of New York gave notice that tomorrow he will move an alternative plan of constituting the committee, which plan will be printed and distributed before that time.

The Committee on Church Union recommended the continuance of negotiations with the Episcopal and other denominations for closer relations and co-operation.

NO DEFENSE FOR GARNESS.

Even Attorney Darwin Says He Was a Dangerous Man.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22.—Ex-Judge Darwin in his argument for the prosecution in the Arnold case, this morning, said, that the fact that Garness sent circulars to people in Colusa, and endeavored to get others to engage in a blackmailing affair had no bearing on the case in its legal aspect. "I would not, for one instant, condone Garness's offense," he said, and further on in the course of his remarks he continued: "You have heard the evidence and you must have concluded he was in all respects a dangerous man, who had embarked on an atrocious enterprise, but to attempt to break up a man's family, to spread scandalous reports about his wife and children is not an offense punishable with death. We can all admit that there are men who ought to be killed. Killing of such men, however, is just as much murder as the killing of a man whose reputation is stainless."

Concerning the line of defense, counsel said it relied on three theories—insanity, self defense, and the introduction of evidence calculated to prejudice the jurors against Garness. The insanity theory rested solely on the evidence that after the receipt of the circulars Arnold's mind was perturbed. The statement that Arnold fired in self-defense was shown to be false, and no evidence showing that Garness was a blackmailer should be regarded in connection with the killing. At the conclusion of Darwin's argument the court took a recess.

THE ARID LANDS.

Senator Stewart Proposes Another Appropriation.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The engrossing clerks of the house expect to send the tariff bill to the Senate this afternoon.

Senator Stewart today proposed an an amendment to the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill (referred to the Appropriation Committee), authorizing the Secretary of Agriculture to expend $25,000 in continuing the investigations of the extent to which the arid region of the United States can be redeemed by the irrigation and segregation of irrigable lands in such region and for the selection of sites for reservoirs and other hydraulic work in connection with irrigation.

A STOLEN WATCH.

It Disappears From Mrs. T. A. Hallett's Residence.

Thomas A. Hallett is the captain of one of the coasting vessels, and when he went away on his last trip he left with his wife his gold watch to have it repaired. She placed it in a drawer with a gold ring, and did not look at it for some days. Yesterday, however, she wanted to compare it with the clock, so she went to the drawer to inspect.

The watch was gone, and so was the ring, and she came this morning and reported the occurrence to the police authorities. She resides at 972 Center street.

The Bird Concert.

For the Bird concert, to be given this evening at the Second Presbyterian Church, an interesting programme has been arranged. Among the participants will be Miss Minnie Dauson, Mrs. Charles Poulter, Miss Lizzie Betts, Miss Jennie Hill, Mrs. Eva Wren, Miss Emma Wetherell, Mrs. W. F. Curtis, Mrs. J. D. Moore, Dr. J. H. Todd, Charles Poulter, the "Three Black Crows," Messrs. Huntington, Price and Baker, and the "Bird Chorus," Misses Edna Alburn, Mattie Rice, Carrie Edwards, Birdie Howland and Cora Dagan.

TAUGHT TO TELL THE TRUTH.

A Little Lad Who Knows the Meaning of an Oath.

C. C. Buyer, a middle-aged man, was placed on trial before Judge Gibson and a jury this morning for the commission of a nameless felony. David Clark of Berkeley, a child 8 years of age, is the complaining witness in the case. When he was called to testify the defendant's attorney objected to his being sworn on the ground of his youth, and that he did not understand the nature of an oath. Attorney Nusbaum next questioned the lad to ascertain whether he knew the difference between right and wrong.

"What do they do with bad men?" asked Mr. Nusbaumer.

"Sometimes they hang them," replied the little fellow.

"What would they do with you if you told a lie?"

"They would send me to jail."

"Have you been taught to tell the truth?"

"Yes; my mother always tells me to tell the truth."

Judge Gibson allowed the lad to be sworn and give his evidence. The little fellow told his story in a straightforward, impressive manner.

A DESTRUCTIVE CROWD.

John H. Church, Jr., and His Wife Go on a Rampage.

A short time ago John H. Church, Jr., sold his saloon on the San Leandro road, known as the "White House," to a man named Gottlieb on, who promised to pay for it on the installment plan. Shortly after 10 o'clock last evening young Church and his wife and another couple visited the White House and demanded liquor, which was refused by Mrs. Gotdlieb on, who was alone in the saloon. She locked the doors and would not allow the noisy crowd to enter the place. The gang then broke all the windows in front of the house, tore down the blinds and had a merry time in general. Mrs. Gottliebson telephoned to Sheriff Hale, informing him that some people were tearing down her saloon. The Sheriff at once went to the scene of the trouble, but when he arrived the destructive gang had taken its departure. Mr. Hale says that the house looks as if it had been struck by a cyclone.

BURGLARY AT CLINTON.

Gilligan's Cigar Stand Ransacked by Thieves.

Gilligan's cigar store and news stand at Clinton station was broken into soon after 10 o'clock last night, the thieves completely ransacking the little store, and taking everything they wanted. Officer Powers had noticed three men prowling about the place, and, as he walked up to see where they had disappeared to, they were just coming out with their swag. He arrested one, a youth of 16, the others getting away in the darkness. He, however, was taken to the City Hall, where he was registered on the small book. His name is withheld by the police, who hope to capture his pals.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Arthur Warner was arraigned this morning for train-jumping, and was fined $2, or one day's imprisonment.

Two barn-bunkers, named Baxter and White, sat in the Police Court dock this morning. Baxter was sent downstairs for five days, but White demanded a jury trial, and his case was continued until Saturday.

Fred C. Whitney, accused of embezzlement from the Gurney Cab Company, was booked for trial this morning, but, by request of the prosecution, continuation was taken until tomorrow.

The old case of George Watson, charged with disturbing the peace of Tim O'Donnell, was called this morning, but, by consent, was continued to June 21st.

A TELEGRAM FROM WALL.

The Attorney Says That He Will Come Hither Tomorrow.

A telegram was received by the Chief of Police this afternoon dated at Spanishtown, and signed John A. Wall, announcing that the subscriber will come to Oakland tomorrow to surrender himself into custody. Wall is accused of the embezzlement of $500 from the estate of Duncan Cameron while acting as attorney for the estate.

A Bold Theft.

A horse, the property of A. Kendall of the Pacific Coast Planing Mills, was stolen on the 13th inst., from the yard, opposite the mill. The thief walked boldly in, and with a rope, borrowed from a house near by, secured the animal and rode off. This was at midday, and the act was seen by several persons, no one suspecting it to be a theft. Mr. Kendall visited the police headquarters and reported the loss of his horse, and asked for aid in a search for him. Mr. Kendall says he was bluntly refused any assistance, and told to hunt him up himself, and that he can give the name of the officer who gave him this privilege.

FOUR GRADUATES.

Commencement Exercises at California College.

THE STUDENTS' BOGUS YE TERDAY.

What the Bright Young Graduates Had to Say in Their Orations. Flowers and Music.

Commencement exercises were held at California College at Highland Park today, and were attended by a large number of relatives of the students and many friends of the institution. The day was perfect. Highland Park scenery was at its best, and only the limited means of transportation from the trains to the college grounds prevented the latter from being thronged. As it was a large number of people walked the two miles intervening between the Brooklyn station and the college, and not a few declined so to exert themselves upon finding no extra cars to carry them to the grounds. One lady who braved the steep ascent to the college was in a fainting condition upon arrival there.

Within the handsome college building, however, all was busy preparation for the day's exercises. The student's and some of the teachers had tastefully adorned the platform and its furniture, in the main assembly hall, with a profusion of beautiful flowers. These floral offerings, in fact, were almost too numerous. It was hard to find place for them in every instance, and after four large pianos had been completely hidden from sight with banks of roses, there remained sufficient to place in every conspicuous nook. When all had been arranged the platform resembled a floral bower of exceeding loveliness.

Then the students rested and waited for ten o'clock to arrive, when "Commencement" was to begin. In the interior they gleefully related to one another the scenes and incidents of the bogus commencement exercises held yesterday afternoon, which proceedings were a complete surprise to the faculty and to all but a chosen few choice spirits of the student corps. The bogus was keenly enjoyed, and the marked characteristics of the graduating class were cleverly taken off by their juniors, to the delight of the latter and quite a company who had assembled, upon invitation, to what was supposed to be "a students' reception."

Shortly after 9 o'clock this morning, friends and patrons of the college began to arrive, and by 10 A. M., the main assembly hall was filled to the extent of its seating capacity. On the flower-decked platform were seated the graduating students and several of the faculty. The programme began with music, all present joining in singing one verse of "Coronation." This was followed by prayer by Rev. Frank Dixon, and then Otto Blankart, teacher of piano in the college, treated the assemblage to a solo on that instrument.

"The American Idea of Government," an oration, by Clarence Lafayette Maloon, followed, and these extracts will give an idea of the whole composition: "Every nation has had some special idea of government, some underlying principle peculiar to itself, and brought about by peculiar causes and circumstances or foreseen necessities. Athens, a pure democracy, took on the form of a democracy in order that she might wive out hereditary distinction and authority, and be bound together by a common tie of brotherhood. Rome, having suffered beneath the scepter of kings, wearied by their assumed power, at last, disgusted with the name of king, drove them from her walls, and founded that republic, fragments of which exist with power today, its laws and principles being remodeled, enter the constitutions and laws of living governments.

"The perpetuation of any government lies in the enlightenment and education of its people. The American idea embraces a progressive principle, for it does not restrain the progress of party views, nor does it destroy new schemes in their infancy, but it permits them to grow and mature, so that it can measure their results, and if the results attained by a certain plan are such that, if the principles of that plan were placed in the law it would either be an injury or a benefit to the people as a whole, it can be rejected if harmful, or if beneficial, used to the best interests of the government."

Miss Benna Korb was here introduced and sang a solo, with piano accompaniment and violin obligato.

"Impersonated Ideas," an oration by Nellie Vernon Brougher, was next listened to. In the course of her address Miss Brougher said: "The animate and inanimate bodies of creation impersonate God's ideas. The world is a divine idea, expressed in material characters. 'The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament showeth His handiwork.' Sun, moon and stars sit enthroned in the heavens to rule the day and the night. Irrational creatures walk the earth, living proofs of a divine will; while man, clothed in a body from the dust of the earth, inspired with an immortal soul, and raised to life by a divine breath, represents the sublimest conception of God's creative mind. Man is not born into a character already made; nor is it either by chance or fore-ordination that he impersonates a great idea. It is only through incessant struggle to achieve what has been deliberately chosen, that one makes himself the impersonation of a living idea.

"Upon the great stage in the world's drama, man has not acted alone, for woman has appeared among the leading characters. She has made herself a guide, a radiance, and a benediction in that sphere in which Providence in his great wisdom has seen fit to place her. She has become great as a woman, not as a man. She has impersonated in the life of one of the most illustrious characters the world ever knew her lofty ideal of womanhood. Hannah More, beloved and respected by every one, transcends all others in those queenlike attributes and virtues and duties peculiar to her own sex. She represents our model woman—beautiful, yet not vain, witty, yet never irreverent; independent, yet respectful to authority; exercising private judgment, but respecting the opinions of others; fond of the society of the great, yet spending her life among the poor; alive to the fascinations of society, yet consecrating all her energies of mind and body to the good of those with whom she was brought in contact.

After another musical composition, "The Habit of Inquiry," an oration by Nicholas McCarty Harrison, followed. The orator presumed that "children ask questions to satisfy a craving within their minds just as much as a person eats food to satisfy the craving called hunger. Everyone inquires, or the mind is dead, and some, as reporters, make their living by inquiring." The speaker thought that the spirit of investigation should be controlled, else poisonous trains of thought, bottomless theories, north-pole expeditions, and the like, that are not beneficial, would follow.

"Germany was unfruitful of great men or great events for 250 years, because its people did not venture across the Alps, did not inquire into the affairs of other nations. Japan, before Commodore Perry arranged for the opening of its ports, was a nation to itself. The government of the rising sun has since advanced, because its intelligent citizens are enjoying the fruit of careful investigation.

"The habit of inquiry has made the age of invention possible. In 1812 three men were needed in the patent department; in 1836 six men were needed—today it requires a small army. The patent office contains only the models—not the machines, and is only an index to invention. Inquiry is a distinctive element of all progress; a feature of every uplift, mental and moral; a contrast to all inertness; a characteristic of all growth; and this habit is well worthy the struggle for its development shown in our school system."

At the close of the above oration by the president's juvenile kinsman, a young lady sang a pretty song, which called forth much applause.

"Law as an Educator," an oration by George Benjamin Hawley, was the fourth and last oration. The speaker, among other things, said: "In the beginning, when two creatures were first placed in this broad world, when there seemed to be no cause for wrong, and all was right, God saw their frailty and subjected them to laws. From then until now, through the long ages, this world has been advancing. Gradually man has been lifted up and enlightened, until today we stand in an advanced state, wondering at the past and marveling at the present. * * * This world, without law, would be a chaos as dark as night, with riot and disorder running wild; our children would be fiends and we more fiendish still; all would be disorder and tumult, with no purpose, no course, no discipline. The darkness would become intense at once, and in the day we would steal away, as does the slippery serpent. Our neighbor would be one enemy, the child its parents' firebrand; this like a murderous struggle, in which we, like demons, would engage only to fall and fill the grave of a savage who dies in his murderous tracks. Thus we see that law is our salvation, our escape, and, above all, a prominent factor in our enlightenment and education. And, consequently, we have our motto, "Fools, Be Ye Taught."

Rev. Samuel B. Morse, D. D., President of the College, then presented diplomas to the graduates as follows: Nellie V. Brougher of Oakland, George B. Hawley of Oakland, Nicholas M. Harrison of Indianapolis, Clarence L. Maloon of Oakland.

An informal reception, or levee, was held by the faculty and students during the afternoon.

This evening the college alumni will hold a reception at the college, when a musical and literary entertainment will be given for their friends and guests.

THE WEDDING MARCH.

Miss Louise Rabe Becomes Mrs. William Allender.

A Pretty Bridal Ceremony at St. John's Episcopal Church at the Hour of Noon.

At high noon today William Allender of New London, Conn., and Miss Louise Rabe, daughter of Mrs. Frances Rabe, were married in St. John's Episcopal church by the Rev. Dr. H. D. Lathrop, rector of the Church of the Advent.

St. John's church was simply and beautifully decorated. About the chancel were festooned garlands of smilax and flowers in endless variety, and on either side were palms and large bouquets and cut flowers in profusion. The church was filled before the bridal party arrived, and when the first notes of Mendelssohn's March broke the stillness of the church, all heads were turned to catch a glimpse of the beautiful bride as she entered the church on the arm of Mr. Barrolhet, following the ushers, the bridesmaids, and the maid of honor. The bride wore white silk trimmed with point lace.

The maid of honor was Miss Lillian Brown, and the bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Tompkins and Miss Sarah Tompkins, who were dressed in white muli, with hats to match, and each carried a bouquet of roses.

The ushers were Gilbert Tompkins and James Athearn Folger.

The groom, attended by William H. Rabe, his best man, met his bride at the altar.

Mr. Barrolhet gave the bride to her husband when the question was asked, "Who giveth this woman to be married to this man?"

During the ceremony H. O. Hunt, who officiated at the organ, played a number of selections.

This afternoon a private reception was held at the Rabe residence, on Durant and Alice streets, and later Mr. and Mrs. Allender departed for Monterey. On their return they will reside in Oakland.

Among the throng in the church this morning were: Mrs. Rabe, Mr. and Mrs. Barrolhet, Mr. and Mrs. George E. De Golia, Mrs. J. C. Stubbs, Mrs. Lawson, Mrs. S. C. Davis, Mrs. W. C. Little, Mrs. Hart, the Misses Hart, Mrs. C. L. Watson, Mrs. J. H. T. Watkinson, Mrs. Oresties Pierce, Mrs. Henry Wadsworth, Miss Wadsworth, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Pennoyer, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. The assessment for the macadamizing of Union street, from Twenty-sixth to twenty-eighth streets, was completed this morning in the Street Superintendent's office. It amounts to $1650 94, or $1 56 per front foot.

THE BLINDS DRAWN

No More Dumpfroodle at the Maison Piedmont.

THE FINE RESTAURANT CLOSED TODAY

C. P. H. Buck Placed Under Arrest for Hiding Silverware Under Attachment.

C. P. H. Buck, who took possession of the Maison Piedmont when attachments began to be levied by suits brought against Cusin & Ernest, the former proprietors, was arrested last night by Constable Kesler on a warrant charging him with contempt. The warrant was issued on an affidavit made by Kesler, in which Buck is charged with secreting unlawful possession of certain effects of the restaurant and secreting them with intent to defraud the creditors of the restaurant, while the same was in custody of a keeper.

Several days ago and soon after taking possession of the restaurant, Buck removed a quantity of silverware and goods valued at about $200, and concealed the same in a store on Washington street, where they were found by Constable Kesler yesterday. The case will be heard before Justice Snook, at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Last night the cooks and waiters left the restaurant, as there was nothing for them to do, and this morning all the perishable property, consisting of meat and cakes, bread and meat, was sold at auction, the whole bringing $85.00. This afternoon an inventory of the restaurant is being taken, and in a few days the tables and dishes and other property will be sold at Constable sale to the highest bidder.

The Maison Piedmont is permanently closed.

Oakland has had a fine restaurant.

How Buck happened to appear in the trouble over the restaurant seems a mystery. Prior to the time the attachments were levied, he had been employed by Cusin and Ernest as an accountant, and before that time he had been agent for Mr. Schlotzhauer, owner of the building in which the restaurant is situated. When the attachment was levied, the constable found Buck and Ernest in charge of the restaurant, Cusin having disappeared, and it was claimed his interest had been sold to Ernest. A few days later Buck showed a bill of sale, dated May 9th, and appeared as sole proprietor of the establishment. He claimed that Cusin & Ernest had no interest in the restaurant, and that he was not responsible for the bills contracted by them, and now he has commenced suit in the Superior Court to recover more than $1000 from the former proprietors for money advanced, etc.

Search was made by a TRIBUNE reporter for Buck, this afternoon. He was on the street this morning, but was not about the restaurant this afternoon. He formerly lived at 516 Thirty-sixth street, where Mrs. Buck still lives. Mrs. Buck's mother said that her daughter married Buck in Stockton nineteen years ago and came at once to Oakland. Since last fall Buck had not lived at home hardly at all. Mrs. Buck this year commenced divorce proceedings at Martinez, on grounds of mental cruelty and desertion on the part of her husband. He did not defend and a decree of divorce was granted May 2, 1890. All the Thirty-sixth street property is Mrs. Buck's and was hers when she married.

Buck was also caught at the house 557 Albion street, occupied by Mrs. de Camp and others, where Buck is frequently seen. It is said that Mrs. de Camp loaned Mr. Buck money to invest in the restaurant. No one was at home this afternoon.

A VIAL OF MORPHINE.

The Drug in the Pocket of a Dead Woman's Dress.

Coroner Evers made a discovery this morning, while looking over the clothing last worn by the woman who was found dead at the residence of Mrs. M. A. Farrell, on Fourth street, yesterday, supposed to be Annie Hodge. In a pocket of her dress the Coroner found a four-ounce vial, half filled with morphine, a small package of Durham tobacco, a clay pipe and a linen handkerchief. From the fact that the police recognize the woman as having been in jail on different occasions, it is believed that she was a victim of the morphine habit, and took an overdose of the drug. An autopsy will be held this afternoon, and the inquest will follow tonight. As yet, no one has positively identified the body.

THE BOYS LIBERATED.

The Three Mischievous Youngsters Taught a Lesson.

Sid Newsom and Louis Shattuck, two of the three young boys arrested for the theft of jewelry from the trunk of Mrs. W. B. Hamilton of 1271 Jackson street, were, this morning, discharged from custody. On account of the youth of the boys Deputy Naval Officer Hamilton declined to prosecute. The youngsters, who seem more mischievous than evil, probably will profit by their lesson, and behave themselves as is fitting in children of estimable parents.

Necrology.

The funeral services over the body of the late L. F. Beckwith, the well known printer, were held this morning at 914 Wood street.

A requiem mass for the repose of the soul of John F. Prval was said this morning at the Sacred Heart Parish, Temescal.

The funeral of the infant son of Albert L. and Etta Loring Smith, who died after a brief illness, was held this afternoon. The little one was buried at Mountain View Cemetery.

Dr. Bluett's 5-year-old daughter died this morning of scarlet fever.

H. William Miller's remains were embalmed and shipped to Tipton, Mo., last night.

Settling an Account.

Judge Greene is engaged this afternoon in settling the account of the Receiver in the suit of Dr. Tucker vs. his partners, for an accounting and a dissolution of the partnership.

A Battery Case.

Tom Nenlon was arrested this afternoon at East Berkeley on a warrant charging him with battery on old Joe Harper.

Two of the Triplets Dead.

Two of the triplets born to Mrs. Moltas last week have died. The only survivor is a boy.

Homesteads Abandoned.

The examination in the case of the People vs. Chapman on the charge of robbery will be held next Saturday evening.

Professor Cooke's orchestra of this town will furnish the music for the ball to be given on the 31st by the Berkeley Social Club.

It is rumored that several more arrests for selling liquor within one mile of the grounds of the University will be made soon.

The local insurance agents have just received the new block books of the town, showing the location of each building in the town.

University Lodge, No. 162, Knights of Pythias, has decided to hold a picnic next month at Oak Grove, instead of giving an anniversary ball.

The Carpenters' Union of this town will henceforth meet every Wednesday evening, instead of the first and third Monday evening in each month.

A ballad concert will be given this evening in the Congregational Church. This will be one of the most interesting musical events of the season, most of the performers are Berkeley people.

A memorial sermon will be delivered next Sunday evening in the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church by Rev. Mr. Woodward, the pastor. Lookout Mountain Post, Grand Army of the Republic, and the Women's Relief Corps will attend the services.

The two Japanese who were arrested a few days ago for committing depredations in the night time on the property of a resident in North Berkeley, were tried yesterday afternoon. There was no evidence against one of the defendents, but the other, Kuryjama by name, confessed that he came at night, tore up the rose bushes, etc. He was fined $25 and his companion was acquitted. Kuryjama is now in the County Jail, where he will probably stay for the next twenty-five days.

Messrs. Heywood and Ricard, the Street Committee of the Board of Town Trustees, went over the ground on Vine street yesterday, accompanied by several of the property owners, to ascertain what could be done about the south line of the street. It was evident that the line must be moved back, but the property owners objected. One has built very near the line, and would be obliged to move his house back if the street line is moved backward. It was then asked by Trustee Heywood what the entire damage in moving the line back, "$150," was the reply of one of the property owners, after some calculation. "I'll give $50 toward the required amount," said J. J. Dunn, contractor for the work on the street. Trustee Heywood said that he and Trustee Pickard could vouch for $50 from the town. The property owners were to be inconvenienced by the changing of the line, three in number, agreed to stand the remaining $50, and thus the matter was settled.

Golden Gate.

J. B. Matthews is visiting with Mr. Sullivan for a few days.

R. L. Hogshead is now attending the Law College in San Francisco.

THE DENVER "EXILE" AND JACKSON.

Madden's Big Bluff on Sullivan. Corbett and Slavin May Meet. Gallagher "Lets Go."

The latest move of the astute Billy Madden to bring his latest protege, "Big" Joe McAuliffe, into prominence, with a view of making much money for Mr. Madden, is likely to result in a certain amount of success, notwithstanding that it was the most transparent kind of a bluff. A match was proposed between the Mission Pet and John L. Sullivan for $5000 a side. If any one who knows anything about Joe's record, or has ever seen him in the ring, would pause for a moment to consider the nature of such a proposal, he could hardly help being astonished—as much at its apparent presumption as its latent cunning. McAuliffe is a long way off the class which ranks next to the championship, and it would not take a very bold man to predict that whatever hopes he may entertain of ever getting there are just a little further off realization than the Millennium. But Billy is wiser in his generation than either Barnett, who "runs" Sullivan, or even the smooth, sanctimonious slick "Parson," who does the managing act for the ebon giant, Jackson. Of course, Sullivan is quite right—in view of the present state of the tariff on the privilege of facing the acknowledged champion of the world—in refusing to fight for such a paltry sum as $5000, which, in the current English tongue, "is spoke" at the ringside, means "a thousand quid." Sullivan's rating of himself is much higher, as the California Athletic Club knows to its cost, and Madden knows equally well from his cunning. Billy, in short, has made a bluff out of which he will make capital as he travels round the country in his capacity as "bear-leader," and he will, I am quite sure, make big capital out of the statement that his man Joe, whom he will represent as "the unlicked cub," scared Sullivan out of giving him a meeting. In connection with his use of the term "unlicked," as applied to big Joe, Mr. Madden will, of course, carefully ignore the fact that Joe, backed with elephantine grace, out of an encounter with Corbett and was whipped in short order by Peter Jackson. Those are unimportant details, which it will eminently suit Billy's book to disregard.

It is said, and it is probably true, that a meeting has been virtually arranged between Sullivan and McAuliffe, to take place in the new Mecca of the pugs in Virginia, where every immunity from interference is guaranteed by law. In an interview, Sullivan expresses his confidence that he will—to put it figuratively—make mince-meat of Joe, and he is liable to come mighty near fulfilling his promise to the letter.

By the way, the result of the glove-contest, on Monday night, in Chicago, between Ed. Smith, the "Exile" from Denver, and the big black man from the Antipodes, must have been something of a surprise to the latter and to a good many of his admirers. I do not know that it was particularly so to me. Jackson I have always regarded as a very scientific boxer—one of the best of the crop that resulted from the visit of Jem Mace to the Antipodes, a crop of which we have had a good many specimens on the coast recently. Mace was, above all things, a "fancy" sparrer," but not "in it" when it came to the hard hitting, which characterizes the Sullivanesque school of pugilism. He was a "tapper," in the parlance of the ring, and so has Jackson shown himself to be. So, indeed, have all the Australian importations, with, perhaps, the solitary exceptions of Smith and Murphy, who had more of the instincts of the natural-born fighter in them than the whole of the others put together.

Smith—late of Denver—is a coward, as befits the manner of living which he has followed for years. This was exemplified in his fight with Matthews in this county, when he carried off from that big Australian chump the heavyweight championship of the coast. At the end of the second round he made a piteous appeal to the writer to look at a running sore he had on the back of his right hand, and it was only the "gun" of Billy Hurt, his backer, pressagainst his side, as he sat in his chair, and the threat that he would be shot if he backed out, that made him continue the fight, which only the lack of "sand" on the part of his opponent enabled him to win.

Hence my conclusions from the Chicago mill are, simply, these: Smith is no better man than I always took him to be, and Jackson is a trifle worse. The latter has no show whatever against Sullivan in a finish fight, though he might well hold his own and even have the best of it—by a scratch—in a limited number of rounds, for points. That he could again whip McAuliffe I am reasonably sure—that is, if he put himself in condition (which he evidently is not now), for McAuliffe can never be made a quick fighter. It is not in the man. One might as well try to train a big cross between a Percheron-Norman and a Clydesdale into being a 2:40 roadster as attempt to make anything more out of Barney Farley's "b'ye" than a big pile driver.

Frank Slavin wants to meet Jim Corbett, and I hope the grand heavyweight of the Olympics will give him a meeting. Judging from what I have heard and read of Slavin, he is not only a clever fighter but what Tom Sayers used to call "a rare game 'un," and I am not sure that two men could be picked out from among the pugilists of the world who would be likely to make at once such a scientific and such a game fight. I hope, for the sake of his reputation, that "Our Jim" will not adhere to the resolution, which he is said to have formed, to take a rest for a year and amuse himself with his pupils of the Olympic Club. He should remember the words of Wordsworth, who was himself a member of a ring—or rather of a triangle—that of "the Lake Poets," and who said, "I remembered that youth would fly fast." Let Jim do the same, and gather laurels in "the Golden Now," for the season never will be more favorable nor the crop riper. The land where the slogger lives is not, by any means, "one where it is always afternoon."

Gavin D. High, a San Francisco newspaper man, and a good judge of fighters, is at present at Minneapolis as the press representative of "California on Wheels." He gave an interview to the representative of a paper of that city on the subject of the big fighters, which I should like to reproduce, did space allow me, it is so full of sound sense and calm, unprejudiced judgment. A few selections will be found interesting. He says:

I find Jack Dempsey giving Corbett credit for his late performances, but predicting that there are no championships for him. The assertion merely serves to impress my memory with the sight of Dempsey seated behind Joe Choynski on the barge fight at Benicia, telling him to keep away from Corbett, who was too clever for Choynski.

Mr. High ought to have stated the fact, which is notorious to everyone who knows the great middle-weight, that he has never been known to back the right man in a fight except when he, himself, was one of the fighters. Then, he is always so near right that "there is no fun" in betting against his judgment. But under other conditions he is the worst kind of "hoodoo." In fact, most of the fighters would almost as soon fight Dempsey as be backed by him. They would be sure to be licked in either case.

The following extract from Mr. High's interview is interesting, as a bit of history:

Choynski has whipped in 15 rounds Frank Glover of Chicago, whom it had taken big Joe McAuliffe 30 rounds to defeat. Lately Choynski has whipped Billy Wilson, the colored pugilist, whom Patsy Cardiff whipped—the only thing that Cardiff ever did. So that Choynski, you see, was no chicken, but a game, strong fighter, who had, in addition to his other qualifications, several months' instruction from Peter Jackson, while the latter was training near San Francisco. The first time Corbett and Choynski met the fight was stopped by the Sheriff of Marin county in the fifth round. During that brief period Corbett broke his right hand in making a swinging blow, the use of which blow he has since discarded, except in emergencies. But it was seen that he was Choynski's master. His seconds tried to keep the broken hand a secret, but the fact leaked out, and Choynski's backers were encouraged. Dempsey began to give Choynski pointers and a few sparring lessons—the finishing touches. In the second fight, a week later, Corbett's right hand had swollen up so that he could not use it even for guarding, yet he licked Choynski in twenty-seven rounds with one hand. Corbett fought with the original two ounce gloves, while he allowed Choynski to fight in skin gloves because Choynski had left the proper gloves at home, either intentionally or otherwise.

I notice that Sullivan has gone into the business of supplying syndicate articles on fighting, with "pictures" and all complete. This is almost as good a joke as his alleged purpose of standing for Congress. Why could he not be honest and make the newspaper man, who wrote them for him, call them plain ordinary interviews. It is well known that the champion can write his name only with difficulty—except, indeed, you call speaking into a phonograph writing.

Gallagher, he of the ruddy-gore hued chevelure, has got the "shakes" and has backed out of meeting McCarthy in the California Athletic Clubrooms this month. It may be malaria, and, then again it may be "funk." He will go back East and wrestle with himself for awhile in the hope of getting into condition, some time. There is no truth, I believe, in the report that he was afraid of the vile breath of his foul-mouthed opponent, when they should meet in the ring, though I could hardly blame him, if he had been. It is worse than miasma. Who or what Fitzsimmon, a stow-away from the Zealandia may be or may turn out to be, I cannot pretend to say. With apologies to Mike Geary, of the Call, qui vivra, vordar.

UPPER CUT.

"IT WAS THE CAT."

What Caused the Rifle-Shot in East Oakland Yesterday Morning.

City Attorney Johnson has blood on his hands. Yesterday the sharp crack of a rifle rang out in East Oakland, where the interpreter of Blackstone resides and a moment later he staggered into his house and, half fainting, into a chair.

"Gracious me," said a neighbor to Justice Henshaw, who was at the scene of the tragedy, "what was that?"

"Silence mate," said the judge; "it was the cat."

And that was all that it was. For some time past a large black Thomas cat, with a high C voice and Milo's appetite for young chickens, has terrorized Mr. Johnson's hennery, swooping down like the Assyrians, in the dead of the night, and dealing death and destruction among the feathered youngsters. The City Attorney last night ut ered the fact that the animal should die, but how?—there were nine lives to be disposed of.

He went to his neighbor, Judge Henshaw, to consult him on the matter, and the two lawyers sat in bank for about an hour. Then they decided that the death should be a military one, that at daybreak the next morning Mr. Johnson should file out as a corporal's guard, and by means of Judge Henshaw's twenty Winchester, turn loose the dogs of war. But another difficulty arose—Mr. Johnson had never fired a rifle in his life, though this he determined should be no obstacle. He borrowed the weapon, the judge loaded it and showed him which end to point at the cat when he was ready to fire, and off went Mr. Johnson to bed, where he passed the night disturbed by dreams such as invaded the mind of crook-back Richard the night before Bosworth.

Yesterday morning he arose soon after 4 o'clock and prepared to do the bloody deed. He looked through the window to see if the foe was about, and his heart was gladdened, for on the top of a hencoop sat Thomas, licking his chops and picking the feathers out of his teeth. Mr. Johnson picked up the rifle, looked down the barrel to see if the bullet was still inside, and then went out into the yard, pointed the end Judge Henshaw had told him to at the cat, shut his eyes, and pulled the trigger.

Without even a caterwaul, Thomas rolled over dead, for the lucky mantle of Mr. Snodgrass had descended on the city attorney, and the shot, the first he had ever fired in his life, had gone through to his victim's heart.

The funeral was held today, for on arriving at the city hall yesterday morning, Mr. Johnson notified "Baby" O'Connell that he had placed the corpse in the street to await the arrival of the poundmaster's hearse. The exploit, and the deadly aim, has imbued Mr. Johnson with the idea that he is a born marksman, and this morning he was busily reading the rules regulating the entries for the challenge cup of the National Rifle Association, at whose next meeting he intends to participate.

The Status of Pension Legislation.

The pending pension legislation is of so much interest, as well to expectant beneficiaries as to the people at large, that a statement of the present status of the leading bills on the subject before Congress is worth while. The two measures around which all the others are grouped, either as amendments or substitutes, are the service pension and the dependent pension bills. The Senate and the House are not agreed on these measures. The Senate favors the dependent pension measure and objects to the incorporation in the law of any service pension features. When the dependent pension bill was sent to the House from the Senate it was practically changed into a service pension bill and the amount of the pension reduced from $12 to $8 a month. On the return of the bill to the Senate Committee a strong report by Senator Davis has been filed advising non-concurrence in the House amendments. The report says:

Estimates prepared by Captain Ainsworth of the Adjutant-General's office show that the approximate aggregate cost of a service pension, upon a basis of sixty-two years as the age limit, will be $1,182,095,525. Upon the basis of sixty years, the cost will be $1,333,109,820. Of this amount $1,079,617,024 must be paid before the end of the year 1915, and the average annual payment would be $41,523,732. It should be stated, however, that these estimates are subject to an annual reduction of $1,174,036, due to 22,595 of the pensioners who are already on the rolls at $4 33 a month on the average. These estimates are materially greater than those of the House Committee, but the Senate Committee adopts them because they seem to be based on valid reasons, and because all experience has shown that pension estimates have heretofore invariably fallen below the actual cost. The committee does not believe the service pension would give satisfaction to the soldiers. It is preferential and invidious. It places the man who served ninety days upon the same footing with him who served four years. It compels the youth, when enlisted at eighteen, losing him opportunity for education, and who was discharged a veteran at twenty-three, to wait twelve years before his claim for recognition will be entertained. It is the committee's opinion, that, whenever it is deemed wise to begin a system of service pensions, it should be done for the benefit of all living soldiers who are honorably discharged, and that the rate of pension should be graded according to the length of service. The estimates submitted to the committee, respecting the average term of service, vary from eighteen to twenty-six months. On this basis, the annual charge would be $68,628,595, the estimates, however, being largely conjectural.

The objection to the incorporation of the two schemes under one plan is that it reduces the honorarium of the man who is really in want in order to benefit those who are able to support themselves. There is no doubt that the Dependent Pension bill will pass, but we not believe that the country is yet ready for a service pension law and its enormous burdens.

SECRETARY LELONG of the State Board of Horticulture has not been idle while on his Eastern trip. He discovered under the windows of the entomological department of the Department of Agriculture at Washington a new bug (a lady) with a large appetite for other bugs, and will import her and her interesting family to California. Undoubtedly this intelligent insect had heard of Mr. Lelong's visit and was on hand to be studied by him. Of such are the benefits of advertising.

THE friends of Representative W. W. Morrow want to see him come out and make the fight for Governor, and it is quite likely that he will seek the nomination of his party. Mr. Morrow's political strength is shown by the fact that he was elected to Congress three times from a Democratic district, and the fine record he has made and the leading part he has taken in framing legislation, have made him favorably known to the people of the whole State.

AMONG the names mentioned for President of the State University we hear that of W. H. Mills. Mr. Mills is completely equipped for the place, combining, as he does, fine business and executive ability with the best culture. We do not know whether Mr. Mills would accept the office, but we believe there is no man to whom it could be more safely and advantageously entrusted.

The Effect on High License.

When the "original package" decision was rendered recently by the Supreme Court of the United States, little attention was paid to a second decision, on a kindred subject, rendered the same day, and yet, if the meaning and bearing, attributed to this second decision by the Prohibitionists, be correct, its importance is nearly as great as that of the first decision. The first decision, asserting the right of importation and sale of liquor in Prohibition States, in original packages, was that of Leisy against Hardin, an Iowa case, and the second was that of Lyng against Michigan. A passage in the latter decision says:

In Bowman vs. Chicago and Northwestern Railroad Company, 125 U. S. 465, it was decided that a section of the code of the State of Iowa forbidding common carriers to bring intoxicating liquors into the State from any other State or territory, without first being furnished with a certificate as prescribed, was essentially a regulation of commerce among the States, and not being sanctioned by the authority, express or implied, of Congress, was invalid because repugnant to the Constitution of the United States; and in Leisy vs. Hardin [the Iowa case], the judgment in which has just been announced, that the right of importation of ardent spirits, distilled liquors, ale and beer from one state into another, it is true, by necessary implication, the right of sale in the original packages at the place where the importation terminates, and that the power cannot be conceded to a State to exclude, directly or indirectly, the subjects of interstate commerce, or, by the imposition of burdens thereon, to regulate such commerce, without congressional permission.

It is argued by The Voice that the concluding words of the passage operate to prohibit the imposition and collection of liquor licenses, high or low, so long as the trade is confined to the sale of original packages imported from some other State. The reasoning is, perhaps, a little strained, because liquor licenses are only indirectly a means of regulation. Their primary and ostensible purpose is the collection of revenue to support the State and local governments, and it will scarcely be contended that merchandise coming from another State is free from taxation, so long as it remains in an unbroken package.

MEN AND WOMEN.

James P. McCarthy is at the Nadeau, Los Angeles.

A. Koenig has been re-appointed a notary public.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Scholl will leave for Etna Springs today.

Dr. T. H. Pinkerton has been confined to the house for some time with pneumonia, but is now recovering.

Dr. Charles Raymond, formerly of Oakland, at present practicing dentistry in Mexico, is in town on a visit to friends.

Deputy Coroner Evers, having recovered from his attack of pneumonia, will take a trip to northern California for his health.

The marriage of Frank P. Le Count and Miss Jeannette Culburt Cheney is announced to take place in Alameda in the near future.

The marriage of Wm. H. Gibbons and Miss Margaret D. Hamilton will be solemnized this evening in the Presbyterian Church, Alameda.

Henry Perry has accepted a position as civil engineer for the Hawaiian Sugar Company, and will go to the islands for a year. His family remains in Oakland.

Major J. E. McElrath and a number of well-known Oaklanders went out today for a short trip on the Government cutter Bear, prior to the vessel's departure for Alaska.

A serenade was given last evening by members of the Singing Club of Zion German Lutheran Church to Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Richter of 301 East Twelth street, who were recently married.

The "tea," which was to have been given the active members of the Young Men's Christian Association on Friday evening, has been postponed on account of the continued illness of Secretary Bray.

The marriage was solemnized yesterday in San Francisco of Alexander Baldwin, of the firm of Baldwin, Taylor & Co., wholesale oil merchants, a resident of Oakland, and Miss Alice B. Rourke. The ceremony was held at the residence of the bride's parents, 1024 Pine street.

Dr. George E. Shuey, the dentist, and Miss C. E. Bromley, for seven years curator of the Free Reading Room in East Oakland, were married on Friday last at San Rafael by Rev. A. Crosby. The bride has resigned her position at the Reading Room. Dr. and Mrs. Shuey are occupying rooms in the Look building, East Oakland.

Charles F. McDermott, the capitalist, whose handsome residence and grounds at the corner of Seventh and Center streets are so well-known to people riding along Seventh street, contemplates removing to San Francisco, where he is building a fine residence. He intends devoting the West Oakland property for store and business purposes. He will probably remove the building occupied as a residence from the grounds.

William Jackson Armstrong on Nationalism.

William Jackson Armstrong, the distinguished lecturer, who, according to Dr. Stratton is the most eloquent platform orator on the Pacific Coast, has accepted the invitation of the Nationalist Club of Oakland to take the stage of Hamilton Hall and address the people of this city on the problem of the hour. The lecture which he will give at Hamilton Hall next Monday evening is a new lecture, and will be heard for the first time on this occasion. Mr. Armstrong's series of eloquent addresses in this city during the past winter have already commended him to the favor of this city; but his present lecture is pronounced by persons familiar with the matter to be exceptionally brilliant and fascinating. Mr. Armstrong is not a Nationalist, but will give in this oration the result of ten years' study on the subject he treats. It will be the lecturer's last appearance in Oakland.

The Day of Reckoning.

S. D. Ingram has sued Charles W. Ingram et al., to foreclose a mortgage of $12,000 on property situated in Eden township.

Frank Estacio has sued Manuel J. Estacio to foreclose a mortgage of $1100 on property situated near Haywards.

THE FOURTH COMMANDMENT

A Seventh Day Keeper Refers to John Currie, Evangelist.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: Will you kindly permit a few words in the cause of justice. There is now preaching in Oakland one who signs himself "John Currie, Scotch Evangelist." He preached the other night on "Justification," or especially against Seventh Day Adventists. He also publishes a tract entitled "Are We Justified by the Law or by Grace?" in which it is several times insinuated that Seventh-day people are teaching that men must be justified by law. The tract has been circulated quite freely. Permit me to say:

Mr. Currie cruelly misrepresents Seventh Day people. Neither Seventh Day Adventists nor Seventh Day Baptists have ever taught through their denominational works or their accredited representatives, that sinful man can be justified by law. It is not in the nature of the law to justify the transgressor. It cannot declare just that which it condemns. Mr. Currie, not having any proof that these people so teach, is he not, therefore, guilty of malicious misrepresentation? If he did not know what they taught, it would be a matter of prudence, to say nothing of Christianity, for him to have kept still. I therefore challenge Mr. Currie to make his words good by proof. I need not say what the Christian alternative would be. If he cannot prove what he affirms, does not my charge of malicious misrepresentation hold good?

Because Seventh-Day people believe in keeping the fourth commandment of the Decalogue does it prove that they have fallen from grace? Would it not prove just as much with him who kept the fifth, the sixth, the seventh or any other? Is disregard of the moral law evidence to Mr. Currie of a genuine work of grace? Is his religion like that of the old colored man who, when charged with purloining his master's chickens, replied: "Yes, massa, Ise done broke ebery one ob de commandments, but bress the Lord I hab'n't lost my 'ligion?"

Keeping the Fourth Commandment, or any or all others, will not win God's favor, but he who receives the effectual favor or grace of God will manifest that grace in the willing, faithful, joyous obedience of Christian liberty. "And hereby do we know that we know Him, if we keep His commandments." 1 John, 2: 3.

REMEMBERED HIS CHILDREN.

Disposition Made of the Large Estate of John H. Druhe.

When John H. Druhe died in this city, a short time since, he left an estate valued at $184,500. His will has just been presented to the Supreme Court for probate. The testator disposes of his property in the following manner:

He gives to his sister Catherine Landwer, $10,000; to his wife the homestead on Market and Fourteenth streets and an allowance of $300 a month during her life; to his son, Wilhelm Heinrich Druhe, a ranch at Napa, valued at $8000; to each of his eight children the sum of $10,000, to be paid as each child attains the age of 25 years. The bequest to Wilhelm is to be deducted from his $10,000. The residue of the estate is bequeathed to the children, share and share alike. The estate is given in trust to the widow and two eldest sons, with directions to carry out the provisions of the will. Mrs. Druhe and her son Herman are named as executrix and executor.

At 2 O'clock P. M. ON THE GROUNDS.

This charming tract is on the direct line of improvement, adjacent to the cable road to Piedmont, on Elevated Ground, affording an unsurpassed view of Lake Merritt, Oakland, Alameda, the bay, San Francisco, and out into the Pacific ocean, and no further from the City Hall and Postoffice than Thirty-sixth street and San Pablo avenue, where lots now sell at $80 per front foot. For residence sites these lots are unsurpassed on the Pacific Coast, and in the very near future will double in value.

Elegant residences, among which are those of Governor Perkins, Mr. Rouse, Mr. Orrick, Mr. Cadman, and others, adjoin this tract, giving a positive assurance of the character of the improvements that this tract will command.

To Examine These Lots Will Be to Select One or More!

Now is the time to invest before the rise that is sure to follow the completion of the cable road. Never before has such property been offered at auction in Oakland.

To the Savings Bank depositor this tract offers the greatest inducements. The certain rise in value will be five times the interest on your money. Parties desiring to invest for a quick profit cannot fail by investing in these lots. Parties desiring lots on which to build homes at present, or in the future, should not fail to carefully examine these lots and attend the auction.

Investors, inform yourselves of the great advances that the cable roads have produced on the elevated sites in San Francisco and view this property, noting the great advantage in climate over corresponding property in San Francisco.

This tract will be reached in seven minutes from Seventh and Washington streets by the cable cars. Intending purchasers will be shown the property at any time before the day of sale on application to the undersigned. The streets are all graded. Each lot is surveyed and numbered. Intending purchasers can locate each and every lot.

RAIL AND WRANGLE

Troubles Dividing the Bargion Subscribers.

SAN FRANCISCO AGAINST OAKLAND.

Shall the Company Be Organized Here or Across the Bay?—Kennedy and Bargion at Outs.

The Bargion rail laid on the local road between Union and Center streets is running very smoothly, but affairs among the promoters of the scheme consist of a succession of jolts and jars, which, from the present outlook, promise a lively lawsuit. There are two sides to the question, and these two sides are beginning to take as a dividing line, the bay of San Francisco, making the Oakland side and the San Francisco side. Criminations and recriminations are heard here, there and elsewhere, but the following, gleaned from several sources, seems a fair and impartial statement of the difficulty:

Some time ago, Peter Bargion, a mechanic and inventor, obtained two patents and applied for a third on an improved railroad rail. He had no money to push his patents and get a test made, and his efforts to interest capitalists resulted in failure. At this time he ran against L. W. Kennedy of this city, who broached a scheme for getting the necessary money to make a test of the rail and incorporate a company to push the rail into use, if the test should be successful.

So a contract was made between Bargion and Kennedy, by which the former gave the latter what was practically a bond on his inventions until July of this year. Kennedy agreed to interest capitalists to organize an association to receive by assignment the entire interest in the patents upon issuing to Kennedy and Bargion one half of the capital stock, which one half was to be divided equally between the two.

Kennedy went to work and arranged with the Southern Pacific to make a test of the rails if provided with them. Then he interested capitalists in the scheme, in order to raise enough money to provide the test rails. He prepared a subscription list reciting the contract with Bargion and providing that subscribers should advance 50 cents for each share of stock taken as a test fund to get out and lay a mile of the rail. Each subscriber took a receipt providing that, should the rail prove a success, he was to advance 50 cents more on each share, and for each $1 thus advanced to receive one share in the corporation to be organized to push the rail, which share was to be of the par value of $10.

Kennedy succeeded in getting a large number of people interested, both in Oakland and San Francisco. Then he went to the Pacific Rolling Mills and arranged for the manufacture of the rail. But the managers of the mills were somewhat doubtful of Kennedy's financial ability to pay for the rails, and matters were blocked for a day or two.

At this juncture, A. T. Hatch, President of the State Board of Trade, a friend of both Bargion and Kennedy, and a subscriber to 2000 shares of stock in the venture, went to the rolling mills and became responsible for the construction of a plant and the manufacture of the rails, making a contract on which he became responsible for the payment of $8000. Kennedy went ahead issuing receipts for subscriptions in his own name under his contract with Bargion, and the money he received was paid over to Hatch to protect him in his contract with the rolling mills.

Right here occurred the trouble between Bargion and Kennedy which has caused the subscribers no end of worry, and which may have its denouement in the courts. Under the original contract between the two it was provided that in case a plant for the manufacture of the rail was erected Bargion was to be employed as Superintendent, at a salary of $200 a month. The two were also to divide all money obtained beyond that necessary to complete the test. When the rails were manufactured at the rolling mills Bargion charged and received from Hatch some $800 for superintending the work. Kennedy protested against this; said it was not under the contract, which provided that a plant was to be erected by the corporation before Bargion was to receive his $200 a month as superintendent; and pointedly called it a grab and an effort to gouge the subscribers. To protect himself and friends, he held back some of the money he had collected.

Up to this time Hatch had only received $5000 to protect him on his $8000 contract, and because of the fight between Kennedy and Bargion things came to a sort of halt. Then George E. De Golia took hold of matters and began rustling up the subscribers. Meetings were held, at which the subscribers agreed that the money collected should be turned over to V. D. Moody, acting for both Bargion and Kennedy. Hatch was not notified of this agreement, but it was ratified by Bargion, and it is supposed that Hatch learned of it through him.

Then Hatch got an idea that he was entitled to the money collected by Kennedy and made a demand for it. Kennedy said he did not recognize Hatch as Treasurer, and told him that Moody had the money and would adjust matters between them. This angered Hatch and Bargion, and things grew more and more sultry.

Six month or two ago a meeting of subscribers was held in George De Golia's office, at which Mr. De Golia was elected Chairman. There Kennedy and Bargion both agreed to assign to a committee, composed of V. D. Moody, F. Chappelet and W. F. Boardman, all their interests in the patents. This committee was subsequently made trustees of the interests of all concerned. They spent several weeks in tracing every certificate that had been issued, every receipt given and to whom all the money had been paid. They found just who were entitled to stock, and got the business well in hand. Recently John P. Irish and Henry R. Taylor, a San Francisco wholesale merchant, were added to the Board of Trustees.

Kennedy, showing his good faith, at once assigned to this committee or board of trustees all his interest in the scheme, conditioned upon Bargion's making a similar assignment, as he had agreed to do. Hatch was called over several times, the differences in money matters were straightened out, and things looked clear again.

But then the committee discovered that Bargion, instead of assigning his interest to the committee, as he had agreed, had made an absolute assignment to Hatch. Hatch and Bargion stated, in defense of this action, that they had been advised by Attorney McCutcheon to take the step. On the other hand, many of the Oakland promoters of the scheme denominate this a dirty piece of business, and say that, during the time that Hatch and Bargion were representing to them that the assignment would be made to the trustees, it had already been made to Hatch, and was on its way to Washington for record. Hatch says, however, that he has filed with his attorney a document declaring that Bargoin's assignment to him is held in trust for the subscribers.

Kennedy says he has satisfied the trustees in regard to all his acts, and satisfactorily adjusted all money matters arising under his contract with Bargion. But Bargion asserts that Kennedy has got the best of the bargain, and that he will take legal steps to prevent Kennedy from receiving any further benefit under the contract, or from the organization of the corporation.

This leads up to the fight now going on between Oakland and San Francisco. It was the intention of Kennedy, and the understanding of the Oakland subscribers, that the company organized to push the rail was to be an Oakland corporation, with its officers selected largely from the Oakland subscribers. But recently Hatch and Bargion have been circulating some sort of a paper in San Francisco which has in contemplation the organization of the company in San Francisco, and the election of Hatch as president.

So efforts are being made on both sides of the bay to secure the votes of subscribers for the majority of the stock. The committee selected to hold all rights in trust, on Tuesday, issued the following card:

To the Subscribers of the Bargion Compound Railroad Rail Test Fund: Your committee has received three more car loads of rails, which will be placed for test as soon as the railroad company decides where it shall be put down, to make the test efficient.

Your committee is not concerned in any personal controversy, but is trustee for the subscribers, and, as such, affirms and maintains the original contract between Bargion and Kennedy, which is the sole security for the rights of the subscribers.

When the test has sufficiently progressed we shall properly notify all the subscribers that they may, as the above contract requires, complete an incorporation, and demand of their parties and their assigns, the assignment of their several interests, for the benefit of the subscribers.

V. D. MOODY,
W. F. BOARDMAN,
JOHN P. IRISH,
HENRY R. TAYLOR,
F. CHAPPELLET, Chairman.

Further than this, a meeting of subscribers has been called by Kennedy for the evening of Saturday, May 24st, in the City Council chamber, at which time it is proposed to select seven or more stockholders to act as directors, and to authorize J. C. Martin to prepare articles of incorporation. With the call for this meeting, which was issued under date of May 14th, Kennedy requests stockholders who cannot attend to empower either John P. Irish or himself to act as their proxy. He also issued the following, over his signature:

OAKLAND, May 14, 1890.

Subscribers to the Bargion Rail Test Fund: GENTLEMEN—I again call your attention to the practical test now being made of the Bargion rail, on Seventh street, this city, west bound track, between Union and Center streets, and ask that you personally inspect the same, that you may be prepared to act upon the matter of forming a corporation and nominating seven or more gentlemen to act as directors. Also, any other matters proper and necessary to be done. There has been an attempt made to hatch up a little "shenanigin," and, I am informed, efforts of that nature are still entertained (by one or two). Your support in the future, as in the past, will, I think, enable you to realize your expectations when subscribing to this fund. It is with pleasure I refer to the following named gentlemen, who are subscribers, and who were appointed a committee to co-operate with me at the first meeting of subscribers, as per notice to you at that time: F. Chappellet, V. D. Moody, President First National Bank; W. F. Boardman, John P. Irish, of the Alta; Henry R. Taylor.

Kennedy has also certified that the following are the only names appearing upon the original subscription list which are uncancelled:

Bargion says, however, that this certified list is not a correct one, and that some 4000 shares of stock sold by him are not represented. Kennedy says that this stock sold by Bargion was his private stock and that the holders are in no way interested in a meeting of subscribers to the test fund, because they paid nothing into the fund. So, altogether, a very lively fight is expected at the meeting on the 31st inst.

In the meantime the committee or trustees have gone ahead with the work. They have had thirty tons of rail laid on the very worst piece of track on the local line, that between Adeline and Center streets, and have seventeen tons more on hand to lay on the curve at the base of the mole, where the rail will have the severest possible test. All the rail, which was turned out under the Hatch contract, has been paid for. On the local road the rail is fulfilling all expectations and the railroad employes praise it highly. It is thought that six months will be sufficient time to make a complete test of the rail, and then the work of introducing it will begin.

It is not proposed to erect rolling mills here to manufacture the rail, but to accept a royalty of $1 a ton from all mills in the country which elect to manufacture it. As there are turned out in the United States every day 100,000 tons of rails, it will be seen that if the Bargion rail comes up to all expectations the royalties accruing to the company owning it may become something enormous. It costs something like $3 a ton more to manufacture the Bargion rail than an ordinary rail, but it is claimed for it that it will diminish by one half the ordinary cost of keeping a track in repair.

Some Beautiful Roses.

J. S. Nordhausen of this city has one of the most attractive displays at the State Floral Society's spring exhibition at Irving Hall, San Francisco. His La France roses, and specimens of the minute Lawrencia species are specially commended.

A Runaway.

A horse drawing a wagon for Al Wood, the painter, ran away near the corner of Seventh and Webster streets, last evening. The driver was thrown to the roadway, but was not hurt.

AN ATTORNEY IN TROUBLE.

He Fails to Account for $500 Given Him by Mrs. Cameron.

Attorney John H. Wall, for whom a warrant has been issued on a charge of felony embezzlement, has not, as yet, been arrested. This morning, Detective Holland went to San Francisco, and will endeavor to find the attorney, and serve the warrant.

When Duncan Cameron died in East Oakland, nine months ago, his widow employed Wall to probate the estate. The attorney was a friend of the family, and a resident of East Oakland at the time. Mrs. Cameron, subsequently, came to the conclusion that the attorney was not managing the affairs of the estate in a proper manner, and she notified him that his services were no longer required. Attorney Welles Whitmore was substituted in Wall's place.

Mr. Wall, however, declined to be discharged, and claimed that a large fee was owing him for services rendered in probating the will. The matter was contested before Judge Gibson, and after hearing the evidence the Judge allowed Wall a fee which he believed to be a reasonable one. While Wall was acting as attorney for Mrs. Cameron, he secured from her the sum of $500 for the purpose of purchasing some stocks. It is charged that he has failed to give any account of this money, and that is why he is to be arrested. Wall is a graduate of the State University, and is well known in this city.

CLOSING EXAMINATIONS.

The End of the Term at the College of the Christian Brothers.

The Commencement Exercises at St. Mary's College to be Held in the Oakland Theater.

On June 4th, at 2 P. M., at the Oakland Theater, the commencement exercises of St. Mary's College, the principal school on this coast conducted by the Christian Brothers, will be held. There are now 140 students in the college, besides about seventy-five in St. Joseph's Academy, which is a preparatory school for St. Mary's. The Sacred Heart College in San Francisco is also, in some respects, a preparatory institution, inasmuch that the students in the Sacred Heart are carried to within one year of graduation and then received into St. Mary's to complete that year.

The graduates from the college will be Joseph A. McAuliffe, J. A. Cooney, Thomas F. Barnes, William H. Taylor, Charles S. Maguire, Daniel M. Warde, Charles T. Hughes, William J. Deeney, James I. Stanley, Francis A. McMahon, Raymond Barry, Joseph N. Strand, Thomas F. Phelan, Anselm T. Duffy, Edward J. Nolan, Edward A. Deane, John J. McDonald.

Examinations are now in progress at the college. The programme yesterday was as appended:

Hopeful March ..... Home Rule Quintet
"What can we do?" ..... David Francis Selby

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION.

Text books, "The Catechism of the Council of Baltimore," "Christian Duties," by Blessed John Baptist De La Salle.
Topic "The Beatitudes."
Introductory work:
1—Description of "The Mountain of the Beatitudes" ..... Fourth Collegiate
2—Sketch of Holy Land. First Commercial
3—Representative Saints of the Beatitudes—Stories about.
Contest between classes in analysis of following suggestions:
a—Meaning of expressions, "poor in spirit," "pure of heart," "possesses the land," "shall see God," etc.
b—Ways in which Beatitudes may be practiced.
c—Religious orders in which Beatitudes are realized.
d—The Beatitudes and Holy Writ. e—The Beatitudes a great social lesson.
f—All true greatness, religious or secular, in harmony with the teachings of the Beatitudes.
Students of First Commercial will furnish specimen lessons on Beatitudes on blackboards of their class-room.

ARITHMETIC—MENTAL AND WRITTEN.

Text book, "Robinson's Practical" and "Mental."
Work selected:
a—Mental tests in simple proportion, Fourth Collegiate.
b—Mental tests in partnership, First Commercial.
c—Blackboard specimens of well arranged problems.
d—"Articles of agreement in partnership," First Commercial.
e—Problems in compound proportion, showing difference of cost of work under short hours and extra payment.
f—Practical "short cuts" in mental calculations.

HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES.

Text to be discussed, "Washington's Inaugurals" and "Farewell Address to the People of the United States."
Salient thoughts and lessons previously conned by classes:
a—This is a Christian nation—Washington so declares.
b—No true greatness without virtue—Washington so teaches.
c—Sacrifice the basis of social prosperity—Washington an example.
d—Public trust a sacred obligation—Washington incessantly repeats.
e—"Patria" not "Party"—Washington's watchword.
f—Washington's skill seen in the selection of counsellors.
g—Republics not always ungrateful—Washington a proof.
Students will discuss the "Inaugurals" and "Farewell Address," and conclude by concert recitation of selections from Phillipps's "Washington."

ALGEBRA.

Text book, "Davies' Elementary."
Matter to be discussed:
Value of Algebra as a study—History of leading mathematicians noted in youth as algebraists—The definitions, as far as class have studied.
Contests between first commercial and fourth collegiate in problems involving one and two unknowns, factoring, and kindred portions.
Exhibition of class work, showing value of algebra as an adjunct of arithmetic.

GEOMETRY.

Text book, "Davies' Legendre."
Preliminary review:
The history of geometry—Great geometricians—Archbishop Spaulding, Bishop Verot and Father Curley—Practical value of what has been learned thus far.
Blackboard work.

It Will Be Useful.

Nine hundred dollars came into the city treasury this morning from the Chinese men and brothers, six of the lottery defendants forfeiting their bail of $150 each. One other case was called, that of Ah Choy, but was continued to June 27th.

Not a Kiss for a Blow.

Cora Taylor last night secured a warrant for the arrest of Lottie Allen, whom she accuses of slapping her on the face on Broadway without any cause, unless it be jealousy. Neither is a prize beauty.

IS HE UNFAITHFUL?

Martin, the Arm Breaker, Sued for a Divorce.

Mary Martin, a middle aged woman, came in person to the County Clerk's office this morning to file a complaint for divorce against her husband, John Martin, on the grounds of infidelity and failure to provide.

"I will not stand it any longer," said the wife. "He has treated me in a shameful manner, and has spent his earnings on other women, while I have been compelled to work for a living. The only thing left for me is to get a divorce and compel him to support me and my three children."

The wife in her complaint asserts that Martin has for a long time been living at a house on Fourth and Franklin streets, and has visited many women whose names are unknown to her. She desires the court to give her the custody of the minor children, and also ask for a reasonable amount of alimony. Martin was arrested a few days ago for breaking a farmer's arm, when the farmer came to him to collect a bill due for pasturage.

AN APPEAL FOR AID.

The Board of Trade Petitions the Supervisors.

Charles D. Pierce, President of the Oakland Board of Trade, has addressed the following letter to the Board of Supervisors:

GENTLEMEN: The Directors of the Oakland Board of Trade have instructed me to petition your body to provide, by an appropriation, for the dues required from this county for the support of the State Board of Trade. That organization is now maintaining a traveling exhibit of the products of the State, which has been visited by more than half a million people, among whom are being distributed 40,000 Oakland papers. The Oakland board has, with your help, kept these dues paid. In many counties the Supervisors are assuming this burden as a suitable and effective method of advancing county interests. We respectfully ask that you appropriate $200 for such purpose, and as much more for the work of this board as you may see fit. We also suggest that you appoint some citizen to represent the Supervisors at our State Board, as their present plan of organization provides.

TRIED TO BRIBE JOHNSON.

The City Attorney Sized Up as a Two Dollar Man.

Henry White, the East Twelfth street pawnbroker, was arraigned in court this morning on a charge of not keeping books according to law. He pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for the 24th.

"I haven't got books now," he remarked to an officer this morning, "but I used to keep them years ago."

A rather amusing incident occurred in connection with the affair this morning. While, before his case was called, went into City Attorney Johnson's office and, turning his back, showed an open hand with $2 in it. At the same time he remarked: "Can you help me?"

He still has his $2.

Want Him Out of the Way.

For some time past the residents of Kirkham street have been annoyed by the actions of a man who first appeared on the scene three weeks ago. His actions were those of a man half demented and in most instances were indecent. So the police were notified and Officer Phillips was dispatched to the scene to investigate. He returned with August Fernandez, an Italian, and lodged him in the cells on a charge of vagrancy. The evidence in support of other charges could not be obtained at that time, but will probably be this evening.

Many Years in Court.

When Lorenzo F. Loveland died in this county in 1864 he owned a number of lots in the town of San Leandro. His widow was appointed administratrix of his estate, and subsequently she became the wife of John Chaffey. Then in 1874, he was appointed administrator of the Loveland estate, and in 1888 resigned his trust. Public Administrator Stanley states that there is now no administrator of the estate, and he asks that letters be issued to him.

Somebody Tells Somebody.

Dr. B. Hamlin, of Lemore, Cal., says a few dozen bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which he sold there created such a demand for the remedy that he could not well get along without it. No one can fully appreciate the real value of this remedy until they have given it a trial. Those who use it find it so much superior to any other remedy they have ever tried that they recommend to their friends, and that is what makes it so popular. For sale by Kirkland & Trowbridge.

The American Book Company is a stock company incorporated under the laws of the State of New Jersey for the purpose of carrying on the manufacture and sale of books.

Its places of business are at Nos. 300 and 308 Broadway, New York; No. 137 Walnut Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, and No. 378 and 380 Wabash avenue, Chicago, Ill.

The American Book Company has purchased the school book publications heretofore issued by D. Appleton & Co., A. S. Barnes & Co., and Ivison, Blakeman & Co. of New York, and of Van Antwerp, Bragg & Co. of Cincinnati. The company will faithfully carry out all contracts entered into by these respective firms for the publication and supply of these books. The text-books which have thus been acquired by the American Book Company have been intimately associated with the history of educational progress of this country for one half a century, and the company will devote its best efforts to sustain the great reputation these lists have achieved. To this end it will seek the aid and co-operation of educators and authors in maintaining the quality and accuracy of its publications, and in the preparation of such new and original books as the progressive demands of the schools shall warrant.

The company is organized in the interest of a reasonable economy in the production and sale of school-books, and it will employ its capital, its combined labor and experience to produce books of the highest quality at the least cost, and will offer them at the lowest price at which similar books can be sold in any country. It will pursue an open, direct business policy toward competitors, customers, authors, and patrons. It seeks no monopoly, and invites an open, honorable competition, with respect both to quality and to price of books for use in schools.

The publications assumed by the company have hitherto received a large share of public patronage. The company hopes to merit a continuance of the same.

Odd Fellows.

Alameda Rebekah Degree Lodge, No. 107, had a well-attended meeting last Saturday evening, when two candidates were initiated. The degree was well rendered, and the officers deserve a great deal of credit for the manner in which they performed the work.

At the recent convention of the Odd Fellows of California in San Francisco the following grand officers were elected: Grand Master, John Glasson of Grass Valley Lodge, No. 12; Deputy Grand Master, J. N. E. Wilson of San Rafael; Grand Secretary, W. B. Lyon, Auburn Lodge, No. 7; Grand Treasurer, G. W. Lemont of Unity Lodge, No. 131; Grand Warden, George W. Stockwell, East Side Lodge, No. 325; of East Los Angeles; Grand Representative, James G. Maguire of San Francisco Lodge, No. 3; Grand Trustees—Lyman Wadham of Templar, No. 17; E. F. White of Capitol Lodge, No. 87; H. D. Richardson of San Pablo Lodge, No. 43.

Of all the lodges in Oakland and vicinity, few are experiencing the same prosperity or using the progressive tactics of Porter Lodge, No. 272, during this term. At its meeting last Tuesday evening the third degree was conferred upon four brothers, and propositions for membership were received from four candidates. Much of this prosperity is due to the energy displayed by Past Grand B. F. Edwards, who is an indefatigable worker in the interests of Odd Fellowship, and Porter Lodge in particular.

The entertainment given by the members of Porter Lodge to their families and friends on Tuesday evening May 13th, was a grand success. The hall, at Center station, was comfortably filled, and the evening was spent in singing, recitations, and a supper, and the entertainment concluded with a dance.

Porter and Harbor lodges have been transferred from the old district to the new district, which now comprises Oakland, University, Fountain, Orion, Porter, and Harbor lodges, of which Past Grand White has been appointed District Deputy.

Masonic.

Brooklyn Lodge, No. 225, worked in the third degree last Tuesday evening.

Alameda brethren will lay the corner-stone of the new Temple on June 10th. It is located on the corner of Park street and Alameda avenue, and when completed will cost, exclusive of furniture, $31,250.

Knights of Pythias.

Brooklyn Lodge, No. 32, is divided upon the propos tion of moving into Odd Fellows' Hall.

Rising Star Lodge, No. 152, at Golden Gate, initiated six strangers at its last convention.

The new temple of the order of Pythian Sisters will be instituted as soon as the requisite number of applicants sign the petition. This order is composed of the mothers, wives, daughters, sisters and widows of members of the order of Knights of Pythias. The petition for signatures can be found at P. C. George Samuels', 905 Washington street, where anyone eligible can sign the application.

Redmen.

Pawnee Tribe adopted a paleface at its meeting on Thursday last, Grey Eagle two last evening, and Tecumseh one at its last meeting.

Great Sachem George H. Buck, accompanied by J. J. O'Bryan, of this city, and other Great Chiefs, went to Suisun last Thursday morning to canvas the field to see if it would be advisable to institute a tribe at that place. In the afternoon they went to Napa, where they paid an official visit to the tribe and Chieftans' League.

Young Ladies' Institute.

A reception will be given by Young Ladies' Institute No. 3 to the officers and members of Nos. 15 and 24, of Oakland, on Monday evening, 26th inst.

No. 7 will hereafter meet on Wednesday evenings.

Mrs. E. Henry and Mrs. Charles H. Connor have been elected delegates to represent No. 24, East Oakland, in the Grand Institute. The alternates are Miss Lizzie Dolan and Mrs. T. F. Whelan.

Order of Workmen.

Oakland Legion, No. 3, and Upchurch Legion, No. 9, Loyal Knights, both of Oakland, have received applications for membership, and they will initiate at their next meetings.

J. W. Ward, G. C., and other Grand Legion officers of the Loyal Knights, with a delegation of the knights of Oakland Legion, No. 3, will pay a fraternal visit to San Francisco Legion, No. 2, this evening.

Order of the Golden Shore.

The members who accompanied W. H. Mathews, S. P., and E. J. Wolfe, S. S., on their official visit to Fruitvale Lodge, Oakland, Tuesday evening, May 12th, were well repaid for their trip. Six new members were initiated, and all enjoyed the repast that had been prepared by the lady members of the lodge.

Miscellaneous.

The Grand Commander of the Legion of the West is seriously ill and confined to his bed.

The S. I. and S. S. visited Oakland Lodge, No. 19, Royal Argosy, last week.

Oakland St. Patrick's Alliance, No. 5, will hold its first annual picnic at the Big Trees, Santa Cruz Mountains, Sunday, June 8th.

YOUNG NATIONALISTS.

Interesting Exercises at Grand Army Hall Last Evening.

The younger element of the Oakland Nationalist Club was in charge of the entertainment given in Grand Army Hall last night. They had decorated the hall with wreaths of evergreens and flowers.

Mrs. S. Gertrude Smythe presided, and by way of introduction to the lighter musical and literary repast, resolutions were read and adopted tendering to Rev. Dr. Silcox the thanks of the Nationalists' Club for a sermon preached by him last Sunday night in East Oakland.

Professor J. P. Garlick, in a brief address, sought to stimulate the interest taken by the young people in Nationalistic doctrines. D. L. Lawrence sang "In Old Madrid," and was followed by Mrs. H. Hines in a piano solo. Miss Cora Knight delivered an address on the principles of Nationalism, replying to the assertion that Bellamy's principles cannot be put into practice without a radical change in human nature. She contended that human nature is affected, for good or ill, by environment, and that Nationalism would work a spiritual as well as a political improvement in mankind.

Miss Edith Owens recited "The Jackdaw of Rheims" from "The Ingoldsby Legends," though she was interrupted during the recitation by someone in the audience who objected to the sectarian character of the recitation. Messrs. Dutton and Pelton rendered a guitar duet, and Miss Stevens of Snell Seminary humorously explained why the High school young men who were down on the programme had not put in an appearance. After Miss Owens had recited "The Clown's Baby," Messrs. Kelsey, Hoenisch and Dutton with Miss Stevens and Mrs. Steele were appointed a committee to prepare a constitution and by-laws in conformity with the State platform.

West Oakland Parochial School.

The graduating exercises of the pupils of St. Joseph's Institute, under charge of Father McNally and the Sisters of Charity, will take place at the school-rooms on the afternoon of the 29th. The following will graduate: Mary Flynn, Lillian Young, Loretto Donnelly, Sophie Detels, Nellie O'Brien, Rose O'Brien and Emily Wells. On this day the parents of the children are invited to be present. The day following, when the exercises will be repeated, the general public are invited. The boys' class of the same school will hold closing exercises on the afternoon of the 26th at Hansen's Hall.

St. Joseph's Academy.

The examinations of St. Joseph's Academy at the corner of Fifth and Jackson streets, conducted by the Brothers of the Christian schools, under the charge of Brother Sabinian, will take place on Wednesday, the 28th inst., at 10 A. M. and at 3 P. M., at the academy. The closing exercises of the term will be held at Elite Hall, formerly Dietz Opera House, on Friday, May 30th, at 2 P. M.

In 1850 "Brown's Bronchial Troches" were introduced, and their success as a cure for Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Bronchitis has been unparalled.

Strong Language.

J. B. Loughran, ex-mayor of North Des Moines, Iowa, said recently: "I have just recovered from a severe attact of la grippe. I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and applied Chamberlain's Palm Balm to my breast. These remedies were just the thing in my case. My child had croup some years ago, and we used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with perfect success, since then we have never been without these medicines in our house. I had a cousin who was a printer and was employed in a job office in this city, where they were printing circulars for Chamberlain. He had a deep-seated cold and terrible cough, and while setting up the copy he made up his mind to buy a bottle. It cured his cough and that was the first time I ever knew anything of Chamberlain's remedies. I have been strongly in their favor ever since. My own experience and that of my family convinces me that these remedies are the best in the world. That may be strong language, but it is what I think." For sale by Kirkland & Trowbridge.

A New Coal Yard.

John Eiferle has opened a new coal yard on the northwest corner of Fifth and Washington streets, and is prepared to supply the public with wood, coal, coke and charcoal at the most reasonable rates. All orders will be promptly delivered to any part of the city free of charge, and the patronage of the people of Oakland is earnestly solicited.

SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR

NOTHING LIKE IT

Its peculiar efficacy is due as much to the process and skill in compounding as to the ingredients themselves. Take it in time. It will prevent disease in the outset, or if it be advanced will prove a potent cure

FOR WHOSE BENEFIT

No Home should be Without It

It takes the place of a doctor and costly prescriptions. All who lead sedentary lives will find it the best preventive of disease for Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Fits and Mental Depression. No loss of time, no interference with business while taking. For children it is most invaluable. Nervous Complaints, Feverishness and Feverish Colds, Invalids and delicate persons will find it the mildest, Aperient and Tonic they can use. A little taken at night insures refreshing sleep and a natural evacuation of the bowels. A little taken in the morning sharpens the appetite, cleanses the stomach and sweetens the breath.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.

"I have been practicing medicine for twenty years and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would, like Simmons Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system."

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Merrick were at Mrs. L. Babb Sunday.

Mrs. Zeno Mauvais of Oakland visited the Turners Sunday.

Mrs. G. E. Chittenden spent most of last week in San Leandro.

Miss Zilla Eadon of Oakland spent over Sunday with the Thanes.

Miss Mary Jones of San Francisco visited Sunday at H. J. Tilden's.

Mrs. T. J. Arnold of Oakland visited over Sunday at the Mayhews.

Miss Mary Kinney of Oakland is visiting her cousin, J. E. Thane, and family.

Miss M. W. Shinn is Secretary of the Pacific Association of College Alumnæ.

The Spare Minute Circle will meet next Saturday evening with Miss Ollie Lamb.

Invitations are out for a progressive euchre for the young people at the residence of Edward Clark.

Douglas Cushman has secured the position of private book-keeper for C. C. McIvor of the Mission.

The first cherries of the season were shipped to San Francisco, last Monday, by Jerry Donovan.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Bryden of San Francisco visited the family of H. E. Mosher Saturday and Sunday.

The freight house opposite the depot is being moved to the other side of the track, near the platform.

Fred H. Maar, pastor-elect, conducted the services last Sunday. Miss Zillah Eadon of Oakland sang.

Dave Tyson and family, Joe Tyson and A. J. Martin went camping last week, bringing back a long string of large fish.

Two carloads of city people attended a picnic in the canyon Sunday. Several Niles people went up to look on.

Mrs. Abernethy spent a few days with Mrs. Chittenden last week. She left for the East Tuesday, to remain about a year.

Many inquiries are made by city people for cottages to rent for the summer. Very few houses are vacant or available.

Several valuable cows have died lately. Last week Mr. Southwick lost one and Monday Joe Tyson lost a fine one of milk fever.

Mrs. Clough and Ned Ellsworth were appointed delegates to the State Sunday School Convention, to be held in San Jose this week.

An interesting baptismal service was conducted in this neighborhood last Sunday. Mrs. Robie of the Salt Works was immersed by Mr. Crump.

Ned Ellsworth is taking the school census this week. The school district boundaries ought to be changed, and no doubt will be in the near future.

W. W. Bristol of the California Nursery will go to Nevada this week, to remain a few months. Mr. Bristol will be greatly missed by the young people.

The eyes of weary travelers turn gladly to the display of spotted roses which are at the station. They are from the California Nursery and are for sale.

Rev. T. G. Crump is drilling a class of boys in military tactics, as part of the programme at the Yellow tea, to be given at Mrs. Joseph Tyson's, May 20th.

The King's Daughters will meet as usual next Saturday at Mrs. Overacker's. All are requested to be present, as important business is to be transacted.

The contract for carrying the mail from Niles to Centreville has been awarded to the lowest bidder, Mr. O'Connor, for $250. He expects to run a stage also.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaskill of Oakland called at Mr. Tilden's Tuesday. They were driving around the bay, intending to visit in San Mateo, Palo Alto, and go home by way of San Francisco.

The Congregational Sunday school children are preparing to celebrate children's day; but one service will be held that day, and no pains will be spared to make the exercises interesting.

The Postoffice is moved. Mr. Dickey has ordered a case of lock-boxes from the East, which will be rented for a small sum quarterly, and will prove a great convenience to the community.

Field Day at the University last week was very interesting. In the putting-shot contest, L. E. Hunt of Niles beat the University record of 34 feet 7 inches and put the shot 35 feet ½ inch.

The road south of the station is being plowed, scraped, and re-graded, under the supervision of the road master. The Morrison canyon road, which was badly cut up by the winter rains, is also being repaired.

The picnic given by the Spare Minute Circle to the King's Daughters, last Saturday, was a grand success. About 8:30 A. M. several wagon loads of young folks rode through the Mission pass into Sunol valley, where, on the banks of the Calaveras, a merry day was spent. They returned, tired and hungry, about 6:30 P. M., fully resolved to have a picnic each year. About sixty were present, most of them being the young folks, a few staid chaperons being present to spread the bountiful lunches. Among the good things were Niles strawberries and cream and Niles oranges.

The Ladies' Guild met last Wednesday at Mrs. Chittenden's house, twenty-eight ladies being present. A vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. C. B. Overacker for her successful management of the bazaar. A donation of $200 was made to the Palermo Church in response to an appeal for help. An insurance for three years was paid on the church property. Arrangements were made for a picnic to be given by the Spare Moments Circle to the King's Daughters. The ladies of the Guild were invited to attend and to furnish refreshments. Miss Helen Clough was elected Assistant Secretary for the remainder of the year. The next meeting will be held June 4th, at Mrs. Thane's.

NOW THEY'RE MARRIED.

The Sequel of the San Leandro Elopement.

Reference was made in THE TRIBUNE, yesterday, to the elopement of Joseph Natress, a teacher of dancing, and Miss Rose Roberts, a belle of San Leandro. The young people were found by a reporter at 1261 Telegraph avenue, and Miss Roberts had become Mrs. Natress. On Sunday last they left San Leandro, went to San Francisco, and were married by a Justice of the Peace. Mr. Natress said that last week he secured a divorce from a former wife, who deserted him over two years ago at Salt Lake City, and who is now in England. She was the only wife he ever had, he said, before he married Miss Roberts.

Mrs. Natress said that the only reason they eloped to marry was the objection of her parents to the match.

By day Natress is a carpenter, and by night a teacher of dancing.

THE TURNERS' FESTIVAL.

Five Thousand Visitors Expected in Oakland.

The Oakland Turn Verein Preparing to Entertain the Throng of Guests.

The Committee of the Oakland Turn Verein have about completed arrangements for the Gau Turn Fest, which will begin in this city on Sunday, June 8th, and end on the night of the 10th. It is expected that the meeting will attract at least 5000 visitors, and delegations are expected from all the Turn Verein Societies on the Pacific coast.

The Turners attending will be the guests of the Oakland Verein, who will entertain their visitors in a hospitable manner. At present quarters are being engaged for the throng that will flock into Oakland, and early next week work will be commenced in decorating the city with bunting and flags of different kinds.

The different visiting bodies will arrive in Oakland on Saturday, June 7th, and on that night a grand torchlight procession will march through the principal streets. The Fifth Regiment and Ritzau's bands have been engaged, and among other bodies in the parade will be Company A, Fifth Regiment, Captain George C. Pardee, commanding; Company F of the same organization, under Lieutenant John Hays; Company C, Third Infantry Regiment, commanded by Captain Henry Levy. The Oakland Fire Department and other local bodies will parade with the Turners. Enough torches for 1200 men have been secured.

The parade will march to the City Hall, where Mayor Glascock will deliver an address of welcome on behalf of the city of Oakland and then the Turners will be escorted to Germania Hall, where the Oakland Verein will receive their visiting bretheren.

On Sunday morning another parade will be held, when the Turners will march through the principal streets and then proceed to Badger's Park, where the festival will begin.

The programme announcing in detail the features of the festival will be published in a few days.

A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life.

It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pound. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought a large bottle, it helped her more, bought another, and grew better fast, continued its use, and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump weighing 140 pounds. PROPOSALS

For the Re-construction of Concrete of That Portion of the Main Lake Sewer Lying Between the Easterly Line of Broadway and the Inlet at Lake Merritt, in the City of Oakland.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF PUBLIC Works, Oakland, May 2nd, 1890.

In accordance with resolution No. 496 of the Board of Public Works, Sealed Proposals will be received in open session of the Board of Public Works, at their office in the City Hall, on Tuesday, the 27th day of May, from 8 to 9 P. M., for the re-construction of concrete, of that portion of the Main Lake Sewer lying between the easterly line of Broadway and the Inlet at Lake Merritt in the City of Oakland.

Work consists of the construction of a sewer of concrete with a foundation of piling where necessary of the dimensions corresponding with the present brick portion and constructing two manholes and four catch basins with lateral connection and conduit pipes, and in accordinance with the plans and specifications on file in the office of the Board of Public Works, to which reference is hereby made for full particulars and description of said work and materials to be used.

The work done and materials furnished to be under the supervision of, and to the satisfaction of, the City Engineer and Superintendent of Streets, and to the approval of the Board of Public Works.

Said work shall be commenced within 10 days, and shall be completed within 90 days after the signing of the contract.

All bids must be made upon the blank forms of the board; which will be furnished upon application, by the Secretary.

All bids must be accompanied by a check certified by some responsible bank, drawn during the month of May, A. D. 1890, on or before the 27th day, made payable to the order of J. M. Brady, Clerk of the Council, for not less than ten per cent of the proposal, which check shall be forfeited to the City of Oakland should the bidder receiving the award fail within ten days to enter into a contract and furnish a good and sufficient bond in a sum not to exceed $5000 for the faithful performance of same.

The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of

THE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS,
C. L. DAM, Secretary.

Wellesley Park!

AT AUCTION

Saturday,

SATURDAY, . . May 31, 1890.

The Event of the Season

THE GREATEST SALE OF

Gilt-Edge : Suburban PROPERTY

Ever Held in California

BY ORDER OF THE

WELLESLEY

Land and Improvement Co.

BOVEE, TOY & CO.

Will conduct this Great Sale on the Grounds.

Wellesley Park, adjoining Redwood City, San Mateo county, has been artistically laid out with winding avenues and drives, shaded by magnificent oaks and other beautiful trees, with which the Park abounds, giving it a natural beauty that cannot be equalled and which justly entitles it to be called

The Gem of the Santa Clara Valley!

A home amidst such beautiful surroundings cannot fail to inspire a love of nature and furnish to the business and professional men of the city a panacea for all the many ills incident to an urban existence.

To the east stretches the great Bay of San Francisco, and toward the west rise the picturesque mountains of the Coast Range, while to the north and south the long sweep of the Santa Clara Valley, fading into the blue horizon, lends a romantic expression to the scene.

The Climate is Mild

And equable, and the summer breezes here softened into delightful zephyrs, distribute the fragrance of the fields and the delicious odor of spring flowers over Wellesley Park, invigorating and resting all who may dwell in this favored spot.

The Neighborhood

Is the choicest in the State, and claims as residents some of our wealthiest and most esthetic people, while the educational advantages are unsurpassed, fine schools and the great

Stanford University

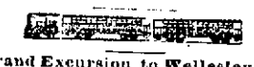
Being within reasonable distance. The property is fenced, while the main entrance is beautified by a massive archway, with handsome gates, as shown in the cut above, giving to the property a characteristic individuality that can never be destroyed.

There are 50-foot lots for those who desire a modest home site, and villa subdivisions of about one acre and upward for those desiring grounds of a more pretentious character.

The large main of the Spring Valley Water Company extends along the front of Wellesley Park, and the purest and sweetest water can be had from wells at a depth of about twenty feet.

To the home seeker this sale offers an opportunity to secure a suburban residence near the City that he will always be proud of, and to the speculator it offers a certain opportunity for a large advance in value as land in Wellesley Park is sure to realize in time the highest price of any suburban property in the Santa Clara Valley.

Be Sure to Attend this Great Sale



Grand Excursion to Wellesley Park on account of this Monster Auction Sale will leave by special train from Southern Pacific Railroad Company's Depot, Third and Townsend Streets, on Saturday morning, May 31, 1890, at 9 A. M. Returning, will leave Wellesley Park at 4:30 P. M. Round Trip Tickets, 50 cents.

These Special Excursion Tickets can be obtained on Monday, May 26th, and until the morning of the sale at the office of Bovee, Toy & Co., 19 Montgomery street, and, also at the S. P. R. R. Depot, May 31, 1890.

A Free Collation will be served on the grounds.

TERMS OF SALE — One-third Cash; balance in one and two years at 7 per cent.

THE ALAMEDA TRUSTEES.

The Bond of the Treasurer of the City Approved.

The New Officer Begins His Official Duties Today—New Firm Beyond the Canal.

An adjourned meeting of the City Trustees of Alameda was held last evening. Thomas A. Smith presented his official bond as City Treasurer in the sum of $30,000 with the following sureties: T. P. Tisdale and C. A. Petersen, each qualifying in the sum of $10,000, and the following qualifying in the sum of $5000 each: Columbus Bartlett, D. L. Randolph, Henry Severing, Fritz Buehmer, George L. Lexis, Henry Korber, J. H. Cory, John Barton, A. W. Pattiani, Theodor Meetz, H. Bremer, I. V. Chapman, and Walter Hoge. The bond was accepted, and Mr. Smith will enter upon the duties of his office this afternoon. A committee was appointed to count the moneys in the vault before turning the office over to Mr. Smith.

Mr. Volberg introduced an ordinance granting a franchise to Mr. Meetz to operate a street railroad on Pacific avenue. All the Trustees protested against its adoption, and it was laid on the table. There is a rumor current that some other persons desire a franchise for a street railroad on Pacific avenue, and to anticipate them Mr. Meetz had had this ordinance introduced by Mr. Volberg.

The City Clerk was instructed to request the Oakland Gas, Light and Heat Company to lay its main on St. Charles street before the street is macadamized.

Alameda Notes.

A warrant was issued this morning for the arrest of a bricklayer named Wood on complaint of James Tait. Wood did not build a chimney to suit Tait, and when the latter pointed out the defects, Wood, so Tait alleges, used boisterous language to him and threatened to jab him with a trowel.

The Executive Committee of the Alameda Improvement Association failed to hold a meeting last evening for want of a quorum.

Operations on the tidal canal excavation have been temporarily suspended because of the breaking down of the steam shovel. The mast which supports the crane collapsed a few days ago, and it had to be taken to San Francisco for repairs.

Justice Byler has sent the case of W. P. Perkins, charged with embezzlement, to Justice Snooks's court, Oakland, for trial. Perkins, in his affidavit for a change of venue, stated that he did not believe that Justice Byler could give him a fair trial, as Perkins is a Deputy Constable and takes business to Justice Holtz's court, West End.

The petition which was forwarded from this place to Washington, for a postoffice appropriation, asked that $75,000 be given, but $50 000, the amount named in Senator Stanford's bill, will prove acceptable.

The Alameda Boat Club will occupy its new house, at the foot of Chestnut street, next Tuesday evening.

Felix Marcuse, of Bay street station, has been appointed notary public. He received his commission today.

FELL FROM THE TRAIN.

A Man Who Was Not Used to Train Jumping.

Hugh Gallen, who resides at 111 Vallejo street, San Francisco, is employed by the San Francisco Bridge Company, doing work on the tidal canal. He took a vacation this afternoon and came to Oakland to celebrate the holiday. When he attempted to jump on the local train at Seventh and Broadway, he missed his footing and was thrown to the ground, receiving a deep cut on the left leg, which was dressed at the Receiving Hospital.

"Where did you get drunk?" asked Dr. Crowley.

"That's that," replied the patient.

"Where did you get drunk?"

"Upon my soul, I haven't touched a drop."

"I can smell the liquor on you now."

"Faith, and I only had two glasses of beer, and that is'nt enough to make anyone drunk."

Returning From Mexico.

John J. Valentine, general manager of Wells, Fargo & Co's Express Company, and wife, Mrs. John W. Coleman, Miss Coleman, Harry Coleman, Aaron Stein, superintendent of the supply department, Wells, Fargo & Co., and wife, and H. L. INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

A Millman Says the Workmen Would Suffer From a Strike.

A. Kendall, of the Pacific Coast Planing Mills, says that, no doubt, the unfortunate labor agitation is tying up capital. Building will be much lighter than usual, until all questions between labor and capital are settled. Many investors will cease building, and many men go idle until hunger ensues, when they will work for almost anything they can get. Strikes in other mechanical branches, such as boots and shoes, clothing, or any branch involving the production of the necessities of life, have no such effect. The world must have the goods, and the manufacturers are certain by some means to supply them. But no one is compelled to build houses for investment. A man in my employ who had saved a sum sufficient to buy a lot upon which to build a home, now declines to risk it until the labor question is settled. If disaster occurs it will strike the mechanic first. Men who would increase their small store must be anxiously careful, while the capitalist has only to take care of his means and nonchalantly look on and wait. But both classes will alike stop building houses unless the sky is clear."

Mr Kendall has recently purchased a one sixteenth interest in the Del Monte Land and Lumber Company for $7000. Owning one half interest before, this gives him a controlling interest. He will inaugurate active measures to keep the price of lumber within moderate bounds. He will erect a mill on the tract, which lies on the Coast. A railroad, two miles long from wharf to timber, has already been constructed. A company, composed mostly of Oakland men, will be formed and proceed to manufacture largely and to open non-union yards and planing mills at several prominent points in the State.

D. C. Scanlon, contractor and builder, is not disturbed by the eight-hour movement nor any threatened strike. He has ten carpenters employed, working the customary nine hours, and would, he says, have no trouble to increase his force.

STUDENTS OF ST. MARY'S.

Examinations of Pupils in Father King's Parochial School.

The students in the primary department of St. Mary's Parochial School passed the semi-annual examinations this afternoon. It had been intended to hold the exercises in the large hall fronting on Seventh street, but the young ladies were using it, so a classroom in the school building at Seventh and Jefferson, was placed at the disposal of the parents and friends, who assembled to listen to this afternoon's exercises, which were according to the following programme:

Probate Notice.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE County of Alameda, State of California. In the matter of the estate of Elmira P. Swett, deceased.

Notice of time set for proving will, etc.

Notice is hereby given, that a petition for the probate of the will of Elmira P. Swett, deceased, and for the issuance to L. M. Elliott, of letters testamentary thereon has been filed in this court, and that Monday, the 2nd day of June, A. D. 1890, at 10 o'clock A. M. of said day, at the courtroom of Department No. 1 of said court, at the Courthouse in the City of Oakland, in the County of Alameda, has been set for the hearing of said petition, when and where any person interested may appear and contest the same.

Dated May 21, 1890.

CHAS. T. BOARDMAN, Clerk.

By ROBERT EDGAR, Deputy Clerk.

LOST—IN EAST OAKLAND OR Oakland or at the Beel Concert, a purse containing two twenty dollar gold pieces. A reward will be given if returned to Kohler & Chase's, 1013 Broadway. mx22-2t

ILLEGALLY ANNEXED.

That Is What the Courts may Decide in the Adams Suit.

Vernon Heights has been illegally annexed! The city of Oakland is not entitled to the territory recently taken within her bounds and the city tax collectors will have to refund the thousands of dollars collected from the people in that territory. If this is the decision to be rendered by the courts in the suit of Edson Adams against the city, the city of Oakland will be retarded in its growth and the councilman who was to be at large in that district will never roam through the corridors of Oakland's municipal building. There will then be only one way to get that territory annexed to Oakland, and that is, to have it brought in by the Peoples Express and Transfer Company which checks baggage to all parts of the United States from your residence, besides doing a general express business. Telephone 326. Office 423 Tenth street.

MESS. FLEMING BROTHERS, Pittsburgh Pa.

GENTLEMEN:—Since leaving the army at the close of the war of the rebellion, I have been subject to malarial or bilious attacks which I contracted in the swamps and bayous of Louisiana while in the service of the U. S. Government. I have used many other cathartic pills, and experienced but temporary relief until I commenced using your DR. C. MCLANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS. I am now as sound as a drum and as clear as a fife, or to use the common vernacular, "as fine as a fiddle." I find them invaluable during the summer encampment of the State National Guards, as they counteract the effects of, and prepare the system for a change of water and diet.

Beneficially yours,
DRUM MAJOR H. B. GOODRICH.

Results after using one box of DR. C. MCLANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, no headache, no backache or pain in the side, excellent appetite, in fact perfect health. H. G.

AVOID COUNTERFEITS! Send us 25c and we will send you by return mail a box of the genuine DR. C. MCLANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS and eight handsome cards.

Senator Hearst to Have a Stud Farm at Pleasanton—A New Church—Early Potatoes.

Early Potatoes.
Livermore Herald.

Frank Fowler will begin digging potatoes on his sixty-acre field on "Dos Mesas," next Monday. He expects a large crop—6000 or 7000 sacks. At present prices, he should realize a small fortune from his potatoe venture this season. Mr. Fowler is shipping gooseberries to the city. He has a very large crop on his two-acre field.

The New Catholic Church.
Livermore Herald.

It is now definitely settled that the new Catholic church is to be built this summer. It is officially announced that the plans and specifications are now ready and the Livermore mechanics have been invited to figure on the building. The church will cost in the neighborhood of $12,000—perhaps more—and it is greatly to be desired that the contract may be secured by some one of our builders.

A Road Grader.
Livermore Herald.

A new road grader was exhibited at work on the county road leading from the Dublin road to the mouth of Collier canyon, this week. It grades without plowing and does a good job. The agent furnished the machine and the farmers the horses, and graded this piece of road in good shape. Every road district should have some kind of a grader, and those who saw this machine at work were greatly pleased with it.

Business Rushing.
Livermore Herald.

There is now every evidence of a speedy return of good times to this locality. The activity at the coal mine, the re-opening of the chrome mine, the perfection of our water system, the building of a large new Catholic Church, the improved prices of hay, barley, wheat and grapes, the large crop of grapes, and many other minor improvements and advantages, unite in giving employment and bringing money into the town and valley.

The Hay Crop.
Livermore Herald.

This is the best growing weather we have had this season, and grain, trees, and vines are all doing their best to develop stock, wood, and foliage. The damp, cloudy weather of last week, while delaying haying, helped out the late grain. Monday was bright, and the mowers began running everywhere again, and the volunteer will soon be down. It is short, and generally has a heavy undergrowth of clover. Some fields got pretty dry during the cloudy weather, while some were cut before the rain and injured in that way, and there will be plenty of inferior hay in the country this season.

The Richards Mine.
Livermore Herald.

Jenkins Richards is now down 115 feet on his incline on the Sutton ranch, and the coal is hardening rapidly. He has a six-foot vein, and the quality promises to be excellent. This is the first opening on the vein, which is the most southerly of those discovered. The others are named—the Summit, Eureka, and Livermore—and we would suggest that this last be called after Mr. Richards, the man who for twenty years has been delving in these mountains, with an abiding faith in the future of the Livermore coal district.

The Hearst Stud Farm.
Livermore Herald.

Senator George Hearst has at last fallen into line, and will add another great breeding farm to the number now clustered about the town of Pleasanton. He has purchased a tract of 440 acres, a mile and a half below the town, on the Laguna Creek. This is the tract secured some time since, be piecemeal, by W. D. Valentine, of Mrs. McLaughlin, Bernal Crow and others. Senator Hearst has been looking for a breeding farm for some time, and his location in this township is certainly a tribute to its advantages for the raising of fine stock.

An Old Timer.
Livermore Herald.

Edward Smith, for many years a resident of this valley, is visiting his relatives and friends here. Mr. Smith, though now 86 years, has a sound mind in a sound body, and is full of reminiscences of early days in California and the Eastern states. Mr. Smith is a pioneer. He was in Michigan in the employ of the American Fur Co., in 1824, and helped to run the line between Indiana and Michigan in 1828. At that time there were no white settlers in that country, and but two Indian traders on the site of the present city of Chicago. Mr. Smith came to this valley in 1865, and began farming on the Livermore ranch.

Developing the Coal Mines.
Livermore Herald.

Two lateral drifts have been started from the main tunnel in the Eureka mine. Each is 7x10 inside the timbers. That on the Livermore vein is already in about a hundred feet, and that on the Eureka about forty. Timbering is required in both. The main tunnel is now in 1600 feet, and progressing rapidly. John Treadwell, the owner, comes up to Livermore and drives to the mine every Sunday. The force of men at the coal mine has been largely increased during the past fortnight. Nearly fifty men are now employed at the mine.

Washington Township.
Irvington Express.

Mr. G. M. Eaton returned home Monday last. Mrs. Eaton is still very ill and confined to her bed.

Dr. Gilstrap has purchased an acre of land from Dr. Walshe off the west end of his property. Consideration $350. Dr. Gilstrap intends building very soon.

Parties have been around, this week, investigating as to the advisability of putting up an extensive fruit drying establishment on the old Lowrie place. They think quite seriously of doing so, and as they are responsible men people would be glad to see such a concern established here.

Miss M. J. Brown has sufficiently recovered from her recent accident to resume charge of the intermediate departments at Centreville. Her sister, Miss Ida, much to the regret of all, particularly of the graduating class, of which she is a member, is detained at home by a protracted illness.

Pleasanton.
Times.

William Johnson received a dislocation of the arm last Saturday. The member was replaced.

William Head and wife left last Wednesday for Modesto, where Mr. Head has accepted a position on a ranch.

Mrs. George Johnson, who has been to San Diego for several weeks visiting friends, returned home last Tuesday.

Farmers in this vicinity were quite lucky that they had none of their hay cut during the heavy rain of last Saturday.

Fred Sneary has entirely recovered from his recent illness, and has gone to work for Mr. Bilz at his trade of blacksmithing.

C. D. Dean, a brakeman on freight train number 35, had the index finger of his left hand severely smashed last Friday, while coupling cars.

William M. Fallon, of Dublin, has been appointed Deputy Road Overseer of the Dublin road district. The people of that road district are evidently bent on having good roads.

Livermore.
Herald.

The Stevens warehouse at this place is offered for rental.

Jenkins Richards is opening a manganese prospect on an affluent of Corral Hollow creek.

Rev. P. Power of this place, has gone to San Diego and will be absent about two weeks.

A new body of ore has been struck in the Ab. Meudenhall chrome mine. Two men are at work.

Chrome is now being shipped at the rate of three carloads a week, worth here about $300.

Rev. C. S. Haswell will go to Los Angeles next week to visit his sister, now in her ninetieth year.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Chamberlain of Dakota are visiting this valley as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harrington.

George Winegar of this valley is about to start a livery stable at Twenty-second and Valencia streets, San Francisco.

Mrs. Jo%e Hilton, nee Clark, has moved her goods to the city, where she is engaged in the millinery and dressmaking business.

Mrs. N. G. Patterson, Miss Ellis Black, and Mrs. Nora Patterson left for Victoria, B. C., on the 15th. They will be absent about a month.

Every pioneer of Murray township, of 1874 or earlier, is requested to meet at the Livermore Town Hall on Saturday, June 7th, at 2 P. M.

A surprise party was tendered Dr. and Mrs. S. L. Savage, last Tuesday evening. About a dozen of their friends were present, and the evening was spent in a very enjoyable manner.

F. L. Fowler reports a fair crop of apricots, very few plums and prunes, and good crops of peaches and pears, in his orchard on the "Dos Mesas" estate.

Michael Kearns is said to have on his ranch near Midway, a field of 400 acres of the finest wheat in California. This is a great season for that section.

Despite the rainy winter, very little hay will be made on the west side of the San Joaquin this season. The entire country seems to be in grain, and crops are excellent.

W. G. Lamb, for sixteen years cattle foreman on the McLaughlin ranch, near Bastas, was drowned in the overflow from Paradise Cut on the 8th, while trying to save cattle.

Messrs. Blanchard, O'Neill & Co. of San Jose, who have leased the Altamont Stone quarries, have now five men employed and are shipping about two carloads of stone per week.

Our recent rainfall was .45 of an inch. The season's fall to date is 28.66 inches. This is upward of seven inches more than was ever before recorded in a single season in this valley.

Budsworth & McVicar's threshing outfit will sail for Turlock on the San Joaquin valley about the first of June. Captain Budworth will be in command and will take a full crew from this place.

John Aylward is busy splicing pipe, and will begin dipping in a few days. The preliminary work is going on rapidly and a general start with a large crew of men will be made about the first of June.

Jacob Berg is in Livermore again, after an absence of nearly a year. He contracted malaria in Sacramento and added to it by a six months' residence in Fresno, and now returns to Livermore to get well. He thinks of remaining here.

W. S. Pogue, the purchaser of the Taylor cottage on J street, has moved here with his family, and is making numerous improvements on the property. Mr. Pogue is a capitalist, and makes his home here for climatic reasons.

Phil. McVicar has rebuilt the Aylward hay press which was burned in the "big field" last season, and has put into it a solid steel gorged crank. Jacob Johnson has purchased a half interest in the press, and Chris. Iverson will start for the San Joaquin Valley with it next Monday.

George Obell of Yolo county has purchased a half interest in the Livermore flouring mills, and will move here at once. Mr. Obell is a practical miller, has considerable means, and the new firm proposes to keep the mill running continuously. Mr. Obell is superintending a number of changes and improvements in the machinery of the mill.

Martin Nevin met with a very painful accident in San Francisco last week. He was talking to a party in a stockyard, and upon turning suddenly to start for the boat, was struck in the face by a plank, on which a boy was teetering. His face has been bandaged since.

The town election passed off quietly. There was very little contest, and a light vote. Only the Marshalship fight lent any spice to the occasion, and even that was of a very mild quality. Three of the old Board of Trustees are re-elected, and two retire. The caucus, Saturday evening, foretold the election, as, with the exception of one independent candidate, there was no contest.

Deputy County Surveyor Prather was in Livermore this week to make arrangements for the Mocho canyon survey, which he will begin about the first of next week. A permanent line for a proposed road is now to be run, as near as practicable, to the creek, and probably on the north side the entire distance. When this survey is made and stakes set, the settlers to be benefitted by such a road, all the way to the further end of the San Antonio Valley, can put in their spare time in work thereon. Many have already signified their willingness to do so, and many hands make light labor.

The Pulpit and the Stage.

Rev. F. M. Shrout, Pastor of United Brethren Church, Blue Mound, Kan., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining 26 pounds in weight."

Arthur Love, Manager of Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption beats 'em all, and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many thousand friends is to urge them to try it." Free trial bottle at Osgood Bros' Drug Store. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1 00.

DRUNKENNESS
(Or the Liquor Habit), Positively Cured by administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.
It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and today believe they quit drinking of their own free will. IT NEVER FAILS. The system once impregnated with the Specific it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. 48 Page Book of particulars free. For sale by P. J. ORDINANCE NO. —.

An Ordinance Determining That the Public Interest and Necessity Demand the Following Municipal Improvements in the City of Oakland, viz:

I. The construction, completion and maintenance within the limits of said City of Oakland of a general, comprehensive and effective system of sewers.

II. The acquisition and reclamation of the salt marsh, near Sixteenth street, in said city, and the deepening and improvement of Lake Merritt.

III. The construction of salt water pumping and distributing works.

IV. The acquisition of certain real estate for sites and enlarged grounds for the uses and purposes of the public schools, and for the erection of school buildings and additions to buildings.

V. The erection of the necessary poles and wires for electric lights for the streets of said city.

Be it ordained by the Council of the City of Oakland as follows:

Section 1. It is hereby determined and declared that the public interest and necessity demand the following municipal improvement, to wit:

The construction, completion and maintenance within the limits of the City of Oakland of a general, comprehensive, and effective system of sewers.

Section 2. It is also hereby determined and declared that the public interest and necessity demand the following municipal improvements, to wit:

The acquisition, drainage, and reclamation of certain salt marsh lands in said city of Oakland, lying between the bay of San Francisco, Sixteenth street, Adeline street, and Thirty-second street projected westwardly to said bay of San Francisco; and

The permanent deepening and improvement of Lake Merritt to provide a flushing basin for the sewers of said city.

Section 3.—It is also hereby determined and declared that the public interest and necessity demand the following municipal improvement, to wit:

The acquisition, construction and completion, within the limits of said City of Oakland, of a pumping and distributing system, whereby said water may be supplied for street sprinkling, for the use of the Fire Department and for the flushing of sewers in said city.

Section 4. It is also hereby determined and declared that the public interest and necessity demand the following municipal improvements, to wit:

The acquisition by the said City of Oakland of certain real estate required for sites for school buildings and for the enlargement of school grounds, and for the erection of school buildings and additions to buildings, for the uses and purposes of the public schools.

Section 5. It is also hereby determined and declared that the public interest and necessity demand the following municipal improvement, to wit:

The erection and construction within the limits of said city of the necessary poles and wires for the proper and sufficient lighting by electricity of the streets of said city.

Section 6. It is further hereby determined and declared that the cost of each of said municipal improvements will be too great to be paid out of the ordinary annual income and revenue of said City of Oakland.

Section 7. This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and approval.

Adjudication of Insolvency.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE County of Alameda, State of California, Department One.

In the matter of A. S. Wolff an insolvent debtor.

Certain creditors of the above named insolvent having filed in this court their petition praying that A. S. Wolff be adjudicated an insolvent debtor, and an adjudication having been had herein, and said A. S. Wolff having, by the decree of this court filed, been so adjudged, and by which it appears that he is an insolvent debtor, the said A. S. Wolff, is hereby declared to be insolvent, and that he was so insolvent on the 11th day of January, 1888, when the petition herein was filed against him. The Sheriff of the county of Alameda is hereby directed to take possession of all the estate, real and personal, of the said A. S. Wolff, insolvent debtor, except such as may be by law exempt from execution, and of all his deeds, vouchers, books of account, and papers, and to keep the same safely until the appointment of an assignee of his estate. All persons are forbidden to pay any debts to the said insolvent, or to deliver any property belonging to him, or to any person, firm, corporation, or association for his use; and the said debtor is hereby forbidden to transfer or deliver any property until the further order of this court, except as herein ordered.

It is further ordered, that all the creditors of said debtor be and appear before the Hon. E. M. Gibson, Judge of the Superior Court of the County of Alameda, in open court, at the court-room of said court, in the County of Alameda, on the 16th day of June, 1890, at 10 o'clock A. M. of that day, to prove their debts and choose one or more assignees of the estate of said debtor.

It is further ordered, that the order be published in THE DAILY EVENING TRIBUNE, a newspaper of general circulation, published in the county of Alameda, as often as the said paper is published before the said day set for the meeting of the creditors.

And it is further ordered, that in the meantime all proceedings against the said insolvent be stayed.

Dated May 12th, 1890.

E. M. GIBSON, Judge of Superior Court.

ORDINANCE NO. —.

An Ordinance Granting to the Edison Electric Company, a Corporation Organized and Existing Under the Laws of the State of New York, Its Associates, Successors, and Assigns, the Right to Lay Down, Maintain, and Operate in the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California, and in the Streets, Alleys, Avenues, Highways, and Thoroughfares Thereof, Wires and Other Conductors and Appliances for the Transmission of Electricity.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF the City of Oakland as follows:

Section 1. The right and privilege is hereby granted to the Edison General Electric Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York, its associates, successors, and assigns, to lay down, maintain, and operate in the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California, including all the streets, alleys, avenues, highways, and thoroughfares thereof, wires and other conductors and appliances for the use and transmission of electricity for illumination, heat, power, telegraphic, telephonic, and all other purposes for which electricity may or can be used. Such wires or other conductors and appliances may be laid in pipes or conduits or otherwise protected, and such other apparatus may be used as may be necessary, usual, or proper to maintain or operate the same.

SECTION 2. It shall be lawful for the said Edison General Electric Company, its successors, its associates, successors and assigns, to make all needful and convenient excavations in any of the streets, alleys, avenues highways and thoroughfares in said City of Oakland under or in which it or they may desire to place such wires or other conductors or appliances and apparatus for the purpose of laying down, maintaining and operating such wires or other conductors or appliances for the purposes aforesaid. All work hereunder shall be performed on the public streets, alleys, avenues, highways and thoroughfares in excavating or repairing the same, in strict compliance with all the rules, regulations, or orders which may, during the continuance of this privilege, be adopted from time to time by the City Council or other governing body of said City of Oakland, and said work shall be done under the direction and to the satisfaction of the Board of Public Works, and where work is done here under, the said grantee or grantees, their associates, successors or assigns, shall, as soon as practicable, restore that portion of the street, alley, avenue, highway or thoroughfare disturbed, to the same good order and condition in which it was prior to said work, and the surface shall be securely supported so as not to impair the use or enjoyment of such streets, alleys, avenues, highways or thoroughfares to the public.

Section 3. All of said work of replacing the material of the public streets, alleys, avenues, highways or thoroughfares excavated therefrom under the provisions of this ordinance in constructing or repairing the roadway, shall be performed by the said grantee or grantees, their associates, successors or assigns, within such reasonable time as may be specified by the Council of the City of Oakland, or other competent authority, and said grantee or grantees, their associates, successors or assigns, shall when so directed by the aforesaid city authorities, or either or any of them, from time to time and within such time as may be specified, make such further and additional repairs to the roadway of such portions of the public streets, alleys, avenues, highways and thoroughfares, so used, as may become depressed or in any manner not conform to the contour of the remaining portions of the same.

Section 4. Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed as in anywise to prevent the proper authorities of the said city from sewering, grading, paving, planking, repairing or altering any of the streets heretofore named. But all such work shall be done, if possible, so as not to obstruct or injure or prevent the free use of said wires, conductors, pipes, conduits, appliances or other apparatus.

Section 5. The rights, privileges, and franchises hereby granted shall continue and be in force for the period of fifty years from and including the passage of this ordinance.

Section 6. This ordinance shall take effect from and after its passage and approval.

In accordance with Resolution No. 14,947, adopted May 12th, 1890, by the Council of the City of Oakland, sealed proposals will be received up to 8 o'clock, P. M., on June 2nd, 1890, at the City Clerk's office in the City Hall, and shall be endorsed "Proposals for Lighting the Streets and Public Buildings of the City of Oakland."

Said proposals may provide for lighting of streets and public buildings for one year from the 1st day of July, 1890.

First: By gas.

Second: By electricity, as follows: 1st, for lighting the entire city by not more than 350 lamps; 2nd, for the lighting of not less than 100 nor more than 140 lamps.

Third: By a combination of gas and electricity.

The bids for electricity under each of the above subdivisions to provide:

1st. For the lighting of the lamps under the moonlight schedule.

2nd. For the lighting of the lamps each and every night until 1 A. M., and to displace all gas lights within their illuminating radius, during the time in which the electric lights shall be lighted. The location of such gas lamps so displaced to be determined by the Council, and the removal of the gas lamps to be made by the Council at its discretion.

The proposals for lighting the city by gas shall provide for the lighting of the number of gas lamps at present in use, and any additional number that may be reasonably required by the city.

The proposals for lighting the city by electricity shall state the kind of lamp to be provided, the commercially rated candle power of same, and the price at which each lamp shall be furnished.

The proposals for lighting the city by a combination of gas and electricity shall separately specify the rate per night for each gas and electric lamp, each gas lamp to be 16, and each electric lamp to be 2000-candle power; the number of electric lights under the proposal to be not less than 100 nor more than 140.

The proposals for lighting by electricity must provide for the lighting of the 69 lamps as at present in use and substantially as now located.

Proposals for lighting the Public Buildings shall state the kind of light to be provided, whether gas or electricity, and the rate per 1600 cubic feet by meter measurement for gas to be supplied, and the price per month for each electric lamp.

Each bidder must deposit a certified check for an amount of not less than five (5) per cent. of the proposal, lawful money, payable to the order of the Clerk of the Council, which check shall be forfeited to the City of Oakland by the successful bidder, if it fail to enter into a contract and execute a bond in the sum of $25,000 within five days after the award of contract for the faithful performance of same.

Claims accruing against the city under the said contract to be paid in the same manner as other indebtedness is to be paid.

The Council reserves the right to determine which method of lighting shall be adopted, and to reject any and all bids.

J. M. BRADY, City Clerk.

Oakland, Cal., May 16th, 1890.
